This course of study emphasizes interdisciplinary knowledge about the role of ethnicity in its national and global contexts. The curriculum provides students with the tools to critically analyze the history and politics of race and ethnicity within U.S. society; the formation of cultural knowledge; and the study of power, community, and social justice from an inter-ethnic perspective.

See an advisor to submit an Application for Graduation the semester BEFORE you intend to graduate.

This UNOFFICIAL document is for planning purposes ONLY and completion does not guarantee graduation.

This certificate is a career program and may not readily transfer to four year colleges/universities (except in special cases.) Visit transfer planning for more information.
