

IN CONVERSATION WITH NPR'S JASMINE GARSD

October 4, 2023
10 a.m.

Montgomery College
51 Mannakee Street
Rockville, MD 20850

Rockville Campus
Science West
Room 301

FREE Admission

Jasmine Garsd and MC's Vanessa Zambrano will discuss Garsd's highly successful podcast The Last Cup, bilingual storytelling, immigration, and soccer (fútbol) and its intrinsic connection to culture. There will be time for questions from the audience during this 45-minute event.

▶▶ JASMINE GARSD

Jasmine Garsd is an award-winning Argentine-American journalist living in New York City. Garsd started her career as the host of National Public Radio's Alt.Latino, a podcast about Latin music and culture. She's currently an immigration correspondent, and focuses largely on women's stories. Last year, she created NPR's hit podcast The Last Cup, which is about Lionel Messi's road to winning the World Cup.

Event Registration: montgomerycollege.edu/events/hispanic-heritage-month

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH EVENT

