Mini - Profile of Spring 2007 Students at Montgomery College

Spring 2007 student headcount is 21,525 - an increase of 488 students (2.3%) from last spring, and credit hours of enrollment finished at 190,463 - up 4.2% from last year. Distance Learning increased at Rockville, but not collegewide. Students took an average of 8.8 credits, up slightly from last spring, while the number of full-time students rose 3% to comprise 36% of the student body.

About seven-in-ten (73%) of the spring semester students had been enrolled in the Fall 2006 semester, while 13% had been MC students sometime prior to last fall, and 15% are new-to-MC. Fifty-nine percent of the students are nonwhite, and fifty-five percent are women. Some 2,239 students (10.4%) are taking at least one distance learning course.
