

CHEMISTRY and CHEMISTRY RELATED DISCIPLINES

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH EXPERIENCES FOR UNDERGRADUATES START PLANNING FOR SUMMER 2010

UNITED KINGDOM

GERMANY

ITALY

FRANCE

Requirements:

- One semester or summer of prior research experience
- GPA of at least 3.25
- Enrolled full-time in chemistry, biochemistry, chemical engineering, or materials science
- Rising junior or rising senior at the end of the program
- U.S. citizenship or permanent U.S. residency

Benefits:

- Sharpen research skills
- Develop global scientific perspective & establish international collaborations
- Gain exposure to a different culture & language
- Participate in research projects of high current interest and potential for publication

Program Overview:

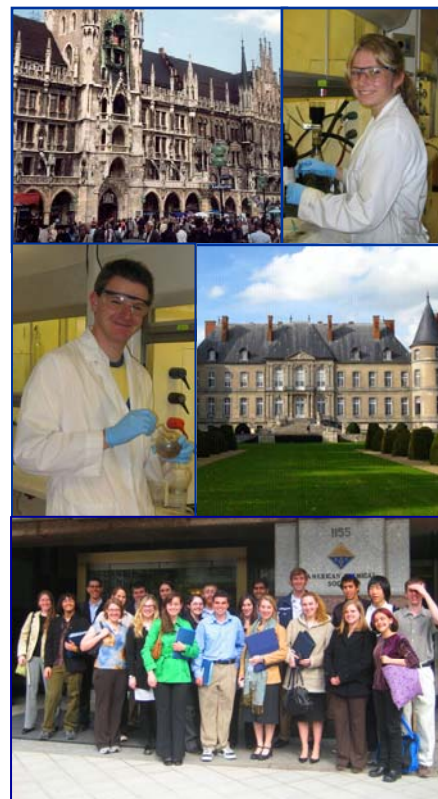

- 10 summer weeks
- Competitive - limited number of scholarships available
- Generous award - up to $5,800 for air travel, living expenses, insurance, pre-departure orientation, language instruction, and presenting at an ACS National meeting

For more information visit www.acs.org/ireu

or write to

ireu@acs.org

Applications will open
November 15, 2009