

Employer Information:

Benefits of the CA/CS
Internship Program:

- Locate qualified students to work for you
- Ease the shortage of qualified workers
- Internship Coordinator will:

Assist in identifying qualifying positions
Attempt to match students with jobs
Screen and forward qualifying resumes
Coordinate with human resource department
Publicize qualified job openings on campus
Conduct required student seminars on job skills and performance criteria

Employers make all hiring and supervisory decisions consistent with company policy.

Call Raymond Kimball
At 301-251-7911
Or e-mail at rkimball@mc.cc.md.us

Begin Building Your Future
While in College!

MONTGOMERY COLLEGE

Offers

Internships

to

Computer Applications
&
Computer Science
Students

Internship Program

Earn College Credit
While You Work

Gain On-the-Job Computer Experience

Here are the details.....

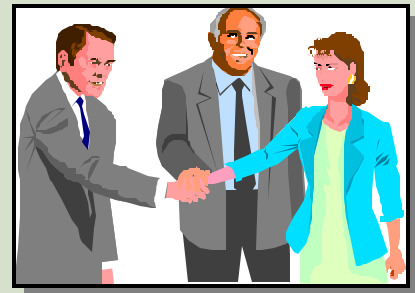

STUDENT INFORMATION:

- Internship coordinator helps you find a position or find a qualifying internship on your own
- Once hired, obtain credit for approved paying and non-paying internships by enrolling in CA269 or CS269
- Earn 1-4 credits per semester depending on hours worked per week.
- Qualified internships must not exceed 20 hours per week
- Students must receive Department approval prior to enrollment in the program for credit.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Twelve credit hours in CA/CS
- Maintain at least a 2.5 GPA
- Be hired in a qualifying position with an area employer
- Enroll in and complete CA269 or CS269
- Meet all company criteria/job requirements

Computer Applications positions may cover just about any entry-level position or higher involving computer skills. Positions may include administrative assistant, word processing specialist, office service assistant, business assistant, database management, Web specialist.

Computer Science qualifying positions must give students direct and substantial contact with computer technology. Positions may include help desk support, programming, network support and Web design and maintenance.