Project Name: Inquiry-Based Learning: How Does It Benefit College Science Students?

Project Director: Ijeoma Otigbuo PhD

Project Update: A three-day professional development activity was held at the Silver Spring/Takoma Park Campus on August 29th, 30th, and 31st. The facilitators of the workshop were Dr. Ijeoma Otigbuo and Dr. Janice Keyser. The format for conducting this activity was as follows:

- A sign-in sheet was used to determine the participant's presence.
- An agenda was given for each day's activities.
- Faculty was actively involved.
- An evaluation form that assessed the participants' perceptions of the value of each workshop was submitted daily.

The number of faculty involved in the program included:

- Three from Germantown
- Two from Rockville
- Eight from Takoma Park/ Silver Spring
- One from Howard University

We are providing the agenda and pictures, and will be preparing a summative report at the end of November, after we determine faculty implement of the workshop strategies.
