Project Name: International Student Project Update

Project Director: Brian Jones

Project Update: The International Student Project is making an open call to Montgomery College students to encourage their participation in this important endeavor. Beginning April 11th and running through May 9th between the hours of 11:00 and 3:00pm on Monday and 10:00 and 2:00 on Friday interested students should come to the Technical Center on the Rockville campus to have their portraits made.

Anyone who is considered an international student, currently enrolled at the college, is invited to participate in this project. Photo sessions typically take about 30 minutes. Students will be given a photograph of themselves and a cd with additional images approximately a week after their session. All interested students should come to the photo session prepared to be photographed with any item they may have that is symbolic of their home culture. Students may bring costumes, masks, or any other items that provide important memories from home.

Students will be asked to complete a short questionnaire about themselves during the photo session. Selected students may be asked to provide a more detailed interview at a later date.

All interested students should contact Professor Brian V. Jones, brian.jones@montgomerycollege.edu, to indicate their interest in being photographed.

Please don't forget to bring something from home!
