

Richard Vosseller

After obtaining his BFA from the Maryland Institute, College of Art, followed by the perfunctory four years in New York, Richard Vosseller received his MFA from the San Francisco Art Institute in 2001. He moved back to Virginia in 2003 where he is adjunct faculty at the School of Art and Design at Montgomery College as well as the Maryland Institute, College of Art. His art is concerned with the subject, paint, being that which affects him; and the object, structure, being that which he affects. Visit him on the web at <http://www.rvosseller.com>.
