The bill of rights is certainly an important part of the identity of this nation, in the sense that it shapes the laws and perception that governs it. Furthermore, it is indispensable tool to govern and assist its people to pursuit happiness. Freedom and security is an indispensable tool to Happiness. If everyone was about to walk the street with a gun hanging on his/her waist, it will not make everyone any safer. So, to avoid anarchy, a well regulated gun control is the premise of a well-balanced society.
