

Homework is required for this course. You will be doing most of it on MyMathlab, an online HW and tutorial system, and will be submitting it online. Your MyMathlab homework score counts for 8% of your final average. In addition, there are some assigned problems in the textbook that are not available through MyMathlab. These problems are listed in bold in the list below.

If you miss a class, go to the course website to learn the current assignment and whether any important announcements were made in class. To get to the website, go to my homepage at www.montgomerycollege.edu/~jriseber and click the link for MA 103. Add the MA 103 homepage to your list of bookmarks or favorites, and check the site periodically, especially if you are late or absent.
