FINDING FELLOWSHIP THE FILM

A BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION!

THE SPEAKERS

Jason Green is a Maryland-based attorney, entrepreneur, and leading voice on community, social innovation, movement politics, and economic opportunity in the era of automation and AI. He served as National Voter Registration Director on Barack Obama's 2008 campaign and remains an active community leader in his hometown of Gaithersburg, MD. Green is also a documentary filmmaker, focused on giving voice to community. Jason is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis and earned a law degree from Yale Law School.

Anthony Cohen is a historian, author, and explorer of the American past. An early purveyor of experiential history, Cohen launched his career in 1996, walking two months from Maryland to Canada, along a route of the Underground Railroad. Cohen is the Founder and President of The Menare Foundation, Inc., a national non-profit organization, "Preserving the Legacy of the Underground Railroad" and operates the Button Farm Living History Center, a 40 acre farm depicting 1850s plantation life in Maryland.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Finding Fellowship is about actively unearthing and finding the history of the Quince Orchard Community in which the protagonists grew up. The film was inspired by this sense of self-determination and belief that we have a stake in our outcomes. It intends to serve as a reminder that with intention and purpose we have the capacity and responsibility to affect our communities. How will you engage and affect your community? What problems exist that you might help solve? What legacy shall we leave together?
