

Montgomery College Equity Week

A Very Local Issue: The Installation of a Historical Marker to Recognize the Lynching of Mr. Sidney Randolph, 1896

The School of Education

The Montgomery County Lynching Memorial Project (MoCoLMP) and
The Montgomery County Commission on Remembrance and Reconciliation

Thursday,
April 13, 2023

Montgomery College,
Rockville Campus
Student Services Center SV 416

12:00 – 1:30 pm.

NOTE: You must register in advance to attend.

Register here:

https://www.eventbrite.com/e/community-conversation-circle-rockville-tickets-593812377807

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

glenda.hernandeztittle@montgomerycollege.edu

Join us for a circle conversation on the history of lynchings in Montgomery County and the forming of the Montgomery County Lynching Memorial Project. (MoCoLMP). Montgomery College student, education major, and MoCoLMP member and advocate, Noah Agboyibor, will lead the discussion on the lynching of Mr. Sidney Rudolph. Representatives from the Montgomery County Commission on Remembrance and Reconciliation will provide updates on Mr. Randolph's historical marker.

Our partners for this event:

Montgomery College School of Education
Rockville City Council

Montgomery County Remembrance and Reconciliation Commission