Call to Order

There is a quorum to conduct business. Chair Kimberly Jones called the meeting to order at 1:00 pm. The meeting was recorded for internal use only.

Constituent Concerns

There was a question about the status of the East County Campus. Dr. Williams disclosed the process is in place and the committee is working on the detail. More information will be communicated as the project progresses. Dr. Cain reported the advisory committee did a feasibility study in fiscal year 2020, which ended in July of 2021. The data involved in the study showed the benefit of the East County Center for the Montgomery College community; it is beneficial to be able to serve the East County residents. There will be more information forthcoming as the project progresses.

Closure of buildings on the Rockville Campus in August. What happens if the building isn't ready for the fall semester? This will be discussed at a future meeting.

President (Dr. Jermaine F. Williams, President of Montgomery College and Sherwin Collette, Senior Vice President for Administrative and Fiscal Services, Updated the College Council on the Coronavirus Protocols and the expectations surrounding vaccinations).

- Dr. Jermaine F. Williams gave introductory remarks and reported to the College Council that he attended the Leggett building topping off ceremony. The Montgomery College budget request was supported that will include Montgomery College East County Education Center as well as the compensation increases for faculty and staff.
- Tuition for the third year has been frozen, which will be a benefit to help our students succeed in their goals toward completing their education.
- Montgomery College is expanding our access to our communities and also investing in our internal structures.
- There were ten Jack Kent Cook semifinalists, which is the most the College has ever had. Two critical language scholars. Dr. Williams had an opportunity to go to the Montgomery Scholars program capstone colloquium a week ago. Twenty students presented their projects on an array of disciplines including history, music and anthropology.
- The Men's and Women's basketball going deep into the playoffs. It has been a robust three week. The student's accomplishments are truly a testament of the dedicated faculty and staff who create the teaching and learning opportunities for our students, both inside and outside of the classroom.
- Dr. Jermaine F. Williams also attended Holocaust commemoration put on by the Paul Peck institute a couple of weeks ago. It really speaks profoundly to the ethic and social justice that is alive here at the College.

Dr. Williams engaged in a conversation with the College Council on the importance of attending the meetings so he can keep informed of the students, faculty and staff concerns and their perspectives, and to hear specific issues and get the Council's input which is very essential to the MC community. Dr. Williams provided an update on the College's health/safety protocol as it relates to the Mask mandate.

- Current Coronavirus protocol. Montgomery College will adjust our current policy to more align with the current health, environment on masking, based on research and guidance. Montgomery College is prepared to transition to a mask optional policy.
- The College will monitor and survey the conditions. If the circumstances change we will revise any protocols.
- Montgomery College will require masks be worn in classrooms and laboratories.
- The College Council requested that any memo outlining the new guidelines for masking, social distancing requirements and other preventative measures be sent in time for employees to process the information before new changes are effective. Dr. Williams will continue to engage the Community on vaccinations requirements. College strongly suggests employees receive their booster.

Chevelle Glymph, (Director of Public Health and Environmental Safety) made the following comments.

- Montgomery College will continue to do daily health assessment if you are not feeling well please stay home.
- The College will continue to supply the spaces with hand hygiene products.
- The College will continue to provide KN95 masks at Public Safety offices, Raptor Central locations, and by orders placed by departments through the Office of Facilities service desk.
- College will continue to require the Booster vaccination for the faculty, staff.
- Human Recourses and Strategic Talent and Management are processing the vaccination cards into a secured database program for faculty and staff.

College Council's Equity and Inclusion Goal (Dr. Clevette Ridguard, Governance Director)

- Dr. Clevette Ridguard led a discussion about the two book readings sponsored by the Equity & Inclusion Friday Book Readings. The first video was a short interview by the authors of Four Hundred Souls, edited by Professor Ibram X Kendi and Professor Keisha Blain with Morning Joe Show on MSNBC. The second video was with the author of CASTE, Professor Isabel Wilkerson and PBS hour interviewer. Each video highlighted the African American historical experience. The videos provided a great overview of these books.

- The College Council is partnering with Equity and Inclusion to bring awareness to equity issues and provide a space and a place for these discussions, which aligns with our goals. Encouraged the Council members to take advantage of the first Friday book club readings.

Governance Information (Dr. Clevette Ridguard, Governance Director)

- Thank you to the communications and elections committee for all of their hard work. Governance has had a successful nomination season. We had 1342 nominations for governance. Tomorrow, March 23rd people can accept or decline their nomination. March 28th thru April 8th employees will be able to vote for the future governance members. Encourage all to vote.
- The final College Council meeting will be on May 10th where we will invite the incoming new chairs and the outgoing chairs. All individual council elections need to be held before May 10, 2022.

Adjourned

The meeting was adjourned at 3:06 pm.
