5. REPORTS

A. President's Report

Dr. Pollard provided information on trends in higher education. She highlighted the work in technology and the viability of MOOCs (massive open online courses). Dr. Pollard noted that technology dictates how students experience the College and provide accountability in the institution. Dr. Pollard discussed performance-based funding and how colleges must respond to new laws based on the model; connected learning; how to respond to the needs of the industry; using Pell Grants to cover noncredit courses; globalization; and security/emergency management. She also shared information about Maryland’s College and Career Readiness and College Completion Act of 2013 ("SB 740") and how it is bringing forth changes in how students come into the institution.

Trustees comments on Dr. Pollard’s report focused on how to get private industry to work with higher education; curriculum changes; faculty staying current in their disciplines; collaborations with businesses; housing for students, faculty, and staff; college affordability; the role of internships; expectations for what incoming students need to know; becoming the most relevant community college in the country; and the need to take risks and continue to change.

Dr. Pollard acknowledged the women’s basketball team and its accomplishments during the 2012–2013 season. Coach Tarlouh Gasque introduced the assistant coach and team members. Dr. Pollard acknowledged the work of Mr. Derek Carter, interim athletic director, Dean Clemmie Solomon, and Dr. Beverly Walker-Griffea. The Board presented certificates to the team members and coaches.

Dr. Janet Wormack presented the Montgomery College FY13 Financial Position and FY14 Budget report to the Board. She thanked staff who worked hard and diligently, and she especially thanked former Senior Vice President Cathy Jones and Ms. Linda Hickey for their work on the budget.

B. Common Employee Experience

Ms. Sarah Espinosa, vice president of human resources, development, and engagement, presented the Common Employee Experience report to the Board. Ms. Espinosa noted that the committee was tasked with determining what every employee should experience as an employee at Montgomery College.

Trustees’ comments and concerns focused on costs, how to measure success, support from staff, attitude of the College community, what was asked of staff, and the importance of such an initiative as change is occurring at the College.

6. CONSENT CALENDAR
BR# 13-06-062 Personnel Actions Confirmation Report

On motion to approve the consent calendar by Trustee Levine, and a second by Trustee Smith, the Board approved the consent calendar by unanimous vote.
