B. June 17, 2019 Public Session

Trustee Knapp made a motion to approve the two sets of minutes. Trustee Suggs Smith seconded. The minutes were approved unanimously.

6. REPORTS

A. Student Report

Student Reports will resume in October.

B. President’s Report

Dr. Pollard opened with a report on enrollment numbers for the 2019 fall semester, which were at or above projections. She added that the Early College program had 961 high school juniors and seniors participating, who will take courses on a Montgomery College campus and earn their high school diploma and associate’s degree at the same time.

Turning her attention to the Fall Opening Meeting, which took place in August, Dr. Pollard thanked First Vice Chair Les Levine, Second Vice Chair Michael Brintnall, and Trustee Marsha Suggs Smith for attending. She recalled that the words of Dr. Russell Lowery-Hart, keynote speaker and president of Amarillo College, serve as an inspiration to “love our students to success.”

Dr. Pollard announced that she will be continuing the Presidential Dialogue Series this year, with the theme “Through the Lens of Difference: Re-Narrating the Nation.” Her first guest will be Dr. Freeman Hrabowski, president of UMBC.

In closing, Dr. Pollard highlighted the theme of her written reports, President’s Focus, this year. These reports will explore the important topic of the future of work, across eight academic and professional fields, examining the changing needs of classrooms that prepare students for the workplaces of the future.

C. Chair’s Report

Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell welcomed everyone to the fall semester and opened her report with some of the major efforts that came about in the final year of the College’s current strategic plan, Montgomery College 2020. She reminded the Board that they approved the Montgomery College 2025 strategic plan last June and its implementation would begin next fiscal year.
Transitioning to advocacy issues, Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell stated that this year the Board will be deeply engaged in advocacy efforts at the state and county levels, including support for our FY21 operating and capital budgets, the Maryland Promise Act, and the 2020 census.

Turning to committee issues, Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell announced the following ad hoc and standing committees and their members for Fiscal Year 2020:

- Community Engagement Committee, chaired by Trustee Bob Levey, with Trustee members Mike Knapp, and Maricé Morales,
- Education & Culture Committee, chaired by Trustee Frieda Lacey, with Trustee members Michael Brintnall, Sarah Haj Hamad, and Mike Knapp,
- Financial Sustainability Committee, chaired by Trustee Marsha Suggs Smith, with Trustee members Ken Hoffman, and Maricé Morales,
- Strategic Plan Assessment Committee, chaired by Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell, with Trustee members Frieda Lacey, Bob Levey, and Marsha Suggs Smith,
- Audit Committee, which is a committee of the whole, chaired by First Vice Chair Les Levine, and
- Audit Review Subcommittee, chaired by First Vice Chair Les Levine, and Trustee members Ken Hoffman, and Marsha Suggs Smith, and
- Executive Committee, which consists of Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell, First Vice Chair Les Levine, and the Second Vice Chair Michael Brintnall.

In current events, Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell announced that the Board held the first of five Constituent Conversations this year, having met with the Staff Council earlier in the evening to discuss “the changing nature of work.”

Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell recognized several Trustees for recent honors and accomplishments, and acknowledged Professor Sonia Pruneda-Hernandez in the audience. Professor Pruneda-Hernandez has been recognized as the ACCT Northeast Region Faculty Member of the Year for her leadership and outstanding work in enhancing the College’s Early Childhood Education programs.

In closing her report, Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell introduced two new members of the Board, The Honorable Maricé I. Morales, and Student Trustee Sarah Haj Hamad. Board Chair Aparicio Blackwell welcomed each of them and invited them to say a few words.

D. FY19 Summary Financial Report

Ms. Donna Schena provided a financial overview of fiscal year 2019, reporting that revenues achieved 99.3 percent of budget and were slightly higher compared to FY18.

She stated that credit hours in FY19 were 4.2 percent below projections, but were offset in part by increases in tuition and fees.
Ms. Schena went on to report that total expenses in FY19 were approximately 5 percent below budget and 1.1 percent lower than FY18, due primarily to savings in compensation and benefits, as positions remained unfilled.

She concluded the report by stating that WDCE revenues achieved 97.8 percent of budget while expenses were maintained at 94 percent of budget, again primarily due to unfilled positions.
