6. REPORTS

A. President’s Report

Dr. Dukes began her report with an acknowledgement of Senior Vice President David Sears’ departure. She reported that Mr. Sears has taken a position and McDaniel College. Dr. Dukes lauded his achievements and service to the College and its students, and wished him well in his new position.

In the same vein, Dr. Dukes welcomed Interim Senior Vice President for Advancement and Community Engagement Ms. Joyce Matthews. Ms. Matthews will step into then role, while the College searches for a permanent replacement.

Turning her attention to other news, Dr. Dukes acknowledged the completion of the Workday Implementation project. She thanked all the employees across the College who worked tirelessly, including over winter break, to ensure a successful launch.

Dr. Dukes transitioned to the topic of enrollment, reporting that 15,228 students were enrolled as of the first Monday of the spring semester. She added that approximately 63 percent of classes are occurring face-to-face and the rest are occurring through structured remote or distance learning. Dr. Dukes stated that in January, the College launched an extraordinary effort to communicate with students around the vaccine requirement and registration for spring.

Dr. Dukes closed her report by thanking the board for arranging the visit of incoming President Dr. Jermaine F. Williams. She enjoyed hosting Dr. Williams for the Spring Opening Meeting and was glad to have an opportunity to discuss Dr. Williams’s vision for equity, opportunity, and embracing the new normal at Montgomery College.

B. Chair’s Report

Board Chair Knapp wished all meeting attendees a happy new year and beginning of the spring semester. He announced that incoming President Dr. Jermaine F. Williams will begin his tenure at Montgomery College on February 28. Chair Knapp stated that Dr. Dukes would remain in an advisory capacity for a period of time after Dr. Williams joins the College.

Board Chair Knapp acknowledged the enrollment information presented by Dr. Dukes in her report and has asked her to provide the board with focused enrollment information in the coming months.

Board Chair Knapp echoed Dr. Dukes’ recognition of Senior Vice President David Sears and also welcomed Interim Senior Vice President Joyce Matthews to her new role.

Transitioning to budget news, Board Chair Knapp reported that earlier in the month, Montgomery County Executive Marc Elrich released his capital budget. The county executive proposed $327.1 million for Montgomery College, of which $500,000 is for planning a potential new center in East County. Chair Knapp reported that on the state level, Governor Hogan released his capital and operating budget, fully funding the Cade Formula, and providing the state’s share of the capital funds needed to renovate the library at the Takoma Park/Silver Spring Campus Resource Center, along with the final installment of construction funds for the Catherine and Isiah Leggett Math and Science building.

Turning his attention to recent events, Board Chair Knapp reported that on January 14 he and First Vice Chair Brintnall held a lunch meeting with the chairs of the MC Alumni Board, the MC Foundation, and the BOT Nominating Committee. On January 17, a livestreamed event was held in honor of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and Board Chair Knapp thanked those trustees who tuned in to watch the program. Lastly, Board Chair Knapp reported that the College held its Spring Opening Meeting on January 18, which was an opportunity to hear about the achievements and highlights of faculty and students from the biotechnology and music programs, along with student athletes.

In sadder events, Board Chair Knapp acknowledged the recent tragedy in Baltimore that took the life of Montgomery College alumnus firefighter/paramedic Kenneth Lacayo, along with three other colleagues. Chair Knapp offered his deepest condolences to the families of the three firefighters.

In closing his report, Board Chair Knapp acknowledged and thanked Trustee Aparicio Blackwell for her participation in a the "Montgomery College at 75" panel, which was a part of the Montgomery County History Conference.

C. Budget and Financial Sustainability Committee Report

No Budget and Financial Sustainability Committee report was given, due to the absence of Committee Chair Trustee Suggs Smith.

D. FY22 Second Quarter Financial Summary Report

Senior Vice President Collette gave introductory comments to the financial summary report of the second quarter of fiscal year 2022. Ms. Liz Greaney, chief business/financial strategy officer, presented the quarter’s revenues and expenditures in detail, reporting that tuition and fee revenue is trending below budget at the end of the second quarter. In addition, Ms. Greaney stated that salary and benefit expenses are below expectations at this time of year due to lower enrollment, fewer part-time faculty, and higher vacancies than projected. Ms. Greaney reported that revenues are meeting or exceeding budget expectations in this quarter and aggregate expenses are within revenues earned.
Turning to federal pandemic relief funds, Ms. Greaney reported that HEERF Grant and CARES Act funds have been fully expended, 99.5 percent of the CRRSSA student emergency funds and 100 percent of the Minority Serving Institution portion have been awarded, and 73.9 percent of the institutional allocation has been awarded as of quarter end.
