1 Retirement
WHEREAS, Professor KenYatta Rogers, faculty member in the Rockville Performing Arts department, has served the College with dedication and distinction since 2000; and

WHEREAS, His extraordinary passion for and dedication to the students in his theatre classes are evidenced by his efforts to educate and empower students to build their craft and successfully graduate or transfer to other colleges or universities; and

WHEREAS, His students attest that his skillful, energetic, and innovative teaching style lead them to realize their potential as students, actors, and contributing members of their communities; and

WHEREAS, Professor Rogers worked tirelessly to expand the scope of the College’s academic and extracurricular life by developing interdisciplinary programs to support students in making connections between the academic world and their own lives; and

WHEREAS, He co-created and produces the MC Poetry Slam, a powerful annual event giving students from all walks of life the opportunity to take their writing from the page to the stage, and to raise their voices to speak about whatever is important to them, in an uncensored spoken word environment before a large audience; and

WHEREAS, He also co-created and produces a week-long collegewide Shakespeare festival, WillPower!, annually, with events on all three campuses including plays, lectures by visiting scholars, and hands-on workshops that foster students’ personal connections to Shakespeare’s works and give context to literary history, world history, world cultures, the continuity of the human experience through time, and the overarching connections among disciplines; and

WHEREAS, He has contributed to the education of his students by developing their abilities to navigate in and contribute to an increasingly diverse and globalized world; and

WHEREAS, Professor Rogers mentors adjunct faculty, serves as the Theatre discipline coordinator, and serves as adviser to the student theatre club, the Black Box Players; and

WHEREAS, He is an active theatre professional and has directed and performed at almost every major professional theatre in our area, including Ford’s Theatre, Arena Stage, Round House Theatre, Theatre J, African Theatre Continuum, and Olney Theatre Center; and

WHEREAS, He has been nominated for and received numerous awards in his career, including nominations for two 2014 Helen Hayes Awards, and has done extensive work in television and film; and
WHEREAS, Professor Rogers is a committed member of the community as evidenced by his contributions as an adjudicator of local dramatic competitions, a speaker at local high schools, a review panelist for local arts commissions, his work in community projects such as “Page to Stage,” part of the Helen Hayes Theatre Legacy Program, and panelist for the First Annual Black Theatre Symposium at the University of Maryland, College Park on the topic “Education: Inclusion and Diversity;” and,

WHEREAS, Faculty colleagues, students, and College administrators, in recognizing his outstanding ability and dedication to teaching and contributions to the College and the community, supported his nomination as Professor of the Year to the United States Professors of the Year Awards Program; and

WHEREAS, The US Professors of the Year Awards Program, sponsored by The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education, is a national program for recognizing excellent undergraduate teaching; and

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection include extraordinary dedication to undergraduate teaching, demonstrated by excellence and involvement with undergraduate students; scholarly approach to teaching and learning; contribution to undergraduate education in the institution, community, and profession; and support from colleagues, as well as current and former students; and

WHEREAS, Professor Rogers has been named the 2014 Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Maryland Professor of the Year from a nationally competitive pool of outstanding community college and university educators; and

WHEREAS, The president of the College recommends this public recognition of Professor KenYatta Rogers on the occasion of this exemplary award; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Board of Trustees recognize and commend Professor KenYatta Rogers upon being named the 2014 Maryland Professor of the Year; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution become a part of the minutes of this Board of Trustees meeting and a copy be presented to Professor KenYatta Rogers.
WHEREAS, Mr. Burge W. Burkett served Montgomery College with enthusiasm and dedication for 30 years as a full-time staff member and retired from the College as of October 1, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Burkett began his employment at the College in 1984 as an instructional assistant I, later progressing to instructional assistant II, and became the academic computing lab supervisor for the Technology Lab on the Germantown Campus; and

WHEREAS, He utilized his education and professional experience in computing to foster academic computing support for students and faculty; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Burkett pursued professional development opportunities including network administration certification, supervisory development workshops, and completed a certificate in the College’s management program; and

WHEREAS, He was instrumental in academic computing service support in classrooms and computing laboratories and was awarded an Outstanding Service Award in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Burkett provided key staff support for the development and expansion of academic computing at the Germantown Campus, and was sought by faculty, staff, and students for his expertise and willingness to engage in challenging technical support needs; and

WHEREAS, He will be recalled as a pioneer staff member who supported the growth of the academic computing base at the Germantown Campus; and

WHEREAS, The senior vice president for administrative and fiscal services and the president of the College recommend this public recognition of Mr. Burge W. Burkett on the occasion of his retirement; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Board of Trustees express their sincere appreciation to Mr. Burge W. Burkett for his outstanding service to the College and extend to him their best wishes that his retirement years be fulfilling and productive; and be it further

WHEREAS, She remained current in the tools of her work as ever-changing technology platforms for word processing progressed from the Lanier system, to the Wang system, Word Perfect, Word, and eventually Adobe Suite systems; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lee was recognized numerous times for Team Effort Awards and Outstanding Service Awards for exemplary service on many projects; and

WHEREAS, She had a leading role in the development and implementation of Workforce Development & Continuing Education’s Automated Course Executive system, which significantly streamlined production of the course schedules by including text and schedule information drawn from numerous sources; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lee also led the production of the noncredit class schedules three times per year for 25 years with each production incorporating more offerings, increasing use of graphics, photographs, and color; and

WHEREAS, The senior vice president for academic affairs and the president of the College recommend this public recognition of Ms. Sandra Lee on the occasion of her retirement; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Board of Trustees express their sincere appreciation to Ms. Sandra Lee for her outstanding service to the College and extend to her their best wishes that her retirement years be fulfilling and productive; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution become a part of the minutes of this Board of Trustees meeting, and a copy of this resolution be presented to Ms. Sandra Lee.
WHEREAS, Professor Beth Van Meter has served Montgomery College with enthusiasm and dedication for 11 years as a full-time faculty member and retired from the College as of February 1, 2015; and

WHEREAS, Professor Van Meter began her career at the College in 2004 and worked in the Nursing Department of the Health Sciences unit to teach the knowledge, skills, and attitudes of the discipline to the College’s nursing students; and

WHEREAS, She contributed to the Nursing Department by serving on the department’s Curriculum, Evaluation, and Lab Technology committees, the Grade Dispute Committee, in addition to serving as a new faculty mentor; and

WHEREAS, Professor Van Meter served as the course coordinator for a variety of nursing courses and participated in revising the nursing curriculum; and

WHEREAS, She demonstrated her commitment to the College community by serving as a nurse practitioner and Faith Community Nurse; and

WHEREAS, Professor Van Meter demonstrated high standards of professionalism through her participation on professional and nursing organizations and attended many professional conferences to maintain currency and competency; and

WHEREAS, She promoted an atmosphere where nursing students felt supported, appreciated, valued, and free to experiment with their learning styles; and

WHEREAS, College policy provides that all faculty holding faculty rank who retire with a minimum of 10 years of service with Montgomery College shall be designated faculty emeritus(a) with the appropriate rank or title, subject to approval of the Board of Trustees; and

WHEREAS, The senior vice president for academic affairs and the president of the College recommend this public recognition of Professor Beth Van Meter on the occasion of her retirement; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Board of Trustees express their sincere appreciation to Professor Beth Van Meter for her distinguished service to the College and extend to her their best wishes that her retirement years be fulfilling and productive; and be it further

Resolved, That Professor Beth Van Meter is granted the status of Professor Emerita, and that she be awarded such recognition and honors as may be appropriate to persons holding this rank; and be it further
Resolved, That this resolution become part of the minutes of this Board of Trustees meeting, and a copy of this resolution be presented to Professor Beth Van Meter.
WHEREAS, Mr. Jon Kreissig served Montgomery College with dedication for 44 years as a full-time faculty member until his untimely death on November 21, 2014, which deeply saddened the College community; and

WHEREAS, Professor Kreissig joined the College as an adjunct faculty member in 1970; and

WHEREAS, By 1973, he accepted a full-time position as one of the key faculty members in the Physical Education Department; and

WHEREAS, He was a tenured professor who brought a great deal of experience to the College; and;

WHEREAS, An athlete who loved a challenge and lived for baseball, Professor Kreissig was one of the original Germantown Campus baseball coaches and served as a coach of track, cross country, football, and as assistant athletic director at the Rockville Campus for a period; and

WHEREAS, In addition to his community involvement around campus, Professor Kreissig’s memberships in civic and professional organizations were many over the years, including serving as an alderman in Frederick County, Maryland, for 12 years; and

WHEREAS, Professor Kreissig also served on multiple associations including the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Instructors; the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation; the Teach Tolerance Movement; and was a representative to the statewide Association of Faculties for Advancement of Community College Teaching (AFACCT); and

WHEREAS, He was also a principal proponent in the planning and development of the Francis Scott Key Baseball Memorial Stadium in Frederick; and

WHEREAS, Professor Kreissig was beloved by his students, who were motivated and engaged by his good humor and coaching skills, and who used knowledge from his classes to improve their health and life habits; and

WHEREAS, He inspired thousands of students and his peers, and contributed to the College in ways too numerous to recount as he has certainly left an indelible mark on the Germantown Campus; and

WHEREAS, As proud as Professor Kreissig was of his students, his colleagues are even more proud to have benefitted from Professor Kreissig’s many contributions; and
WHEREAS, College Policy provides for the awarding of a Bronze Medallion to recognize distinguished service to the community and the College; and

WHEREAS, the senior vice president for academic affairs and the president of the College recommend this public recognition of Professor Kreissig; now therefore be it.

Resolved, That the members of the Board of Trustees express their sincere appreciation to the family of Professor Jon Kreissig for his outstanding service to the College; and be it further

Resolved, That Professor Jon Kreissig is granted posthumously the status of Professor Emeritus, and that he be awarded such recognition and honors as may be appropriate to persons holding this rank; and be it further

APPROVAL OF MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT—COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT BETWEEN MONTGOMERY COLLEGE AND THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF STATE, COUNTY, AND MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES, COUNCIL 67, LOCAL 2380

BACKGROUND

Representatives of the Board of Trustees and the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), Council 67, Local 2380 reached an agreement as a result of re-opener negotiations resulting in amendments to the staff collective bargaining agreement. The amendments to the agreement include: increment adjustment in Fiscal Year 2016 and a general wage adjustment equal to two and a half (2.50) percent of salary. There shall be an increase to the educational assistance program overall amount available in fiscal year 2016. Additionally, call-back pay was increased from three hours to a minimum of four hours of guaranteed pay and regular part-time employees were added to the Essential Personnel Pay (EPP) section.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board of Trustees adopt the attached resolution approving the collective bargaining agreement; authorizing the Board Chair to execute the Memorandum of Agreement; and delegating to the president the authority and responsibility to implement and administer the agreement.
