April 20, 2026

---

This week reflects the many ways our College supports both learning and well-being. As one example, we are partnering in health and safety efforts like National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day. Collectively, our work underscores our shared commitment to a College community grounded in learning, well-being, and connection.

SUBMIT FINANCIAL AID FORMS WITH HELP FROM RAPTOR CENTRAL

If you have completed your 2026–2027 FAFSA or Maryland MHEC One-App, your next step is submitting your financial aid forms, and the Office of Student Financial Aid can help. Next week, on April 28, the Drop the Docs Tuesday walk-in events will be held in Raptor Central at all our locations. Whether you need help submitting, completing, or correcting documents, or have questions about financial aid or scholarships, the team is ready to assist. A virtual session will also be offered and requires registration.

JOIN EQUITY WEEK EVENTS

Equity Week begins today, inviting our community to engage, reflect, and learn together. This year's theme, Advocacy in Motion: Courageous Conversations, Collective Belonging, anchors a series of keynotes, dialogues, and training sessions focused on inclusion, belonging, and equity. The week opens at noon with a keynote from author and Montgomery County leader Jason G. Green, whose memoir Too Precious to Lose explores the history of Quince Orchard and a church merger that reflects the power of truth-telling and moral leadership. The week concludes Friday with the virtual Inclusion by Design Summit, bringing together educators, professionals, and advocates committed to universal design, accessibility, and equity.

AAWCC-MC CONFERENCE TAKES PLACE FRIDAY

The College will host the 3rd Annual American Association of Women in Community Colleges-Montgomery College Chapter (AAWCC-MC) Conference, Rise & Move: Women Advancing with Purpose, this Friday at the Germantown Campus. The conference offers a full day of professional development, networking, and leadership and career advancement strategies. This is a valuable opportunity to connect with colleagues, strengthen leadership skills, and engage in meaningful conversations about purpose and advancement.

With Raptor Regards,

Dr. Jermaine F. Williams

President
