Brad Weil

Trumpet Soloist

Trumpeter/cornetist Brad Weil is a member of the United States Marine Band, “The President’s Own” in Washington, D.C. He began his musical training at age 9. After graduating from Jasper (Wyoming) High School, he attended Indiana State University in Terre Haute, then transferred to Indiana University (IU) in Bloomington, where earned a bachelor’s degree in music performance in 2003. He also pursued graduate studies at IU, where he studied with Ed Cord and John Rommel.

Prior to moving to Washington, D.C. he performed with the Owensboro Symphony Orchestra in Kentucky and these Indiana orchestras: the Fort Wayne Symphony Orchestra, Columbus Philharmonic, Terre Haute Symphony, and Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Michael Mogensen

Composer

A native and resident of Hagerstown, Maryland, composer, arranger, conductor and French horn player Michael A. Mogensen (b. 1973) is an alumnus of the music schools of James Madison University and Ithaca College. Mr. Mogensen’s compositions for band and orchestra are published through the C. L. Barnhouse Company and the TRN Music Company. He has held positions with Warner Brothers Publications and Disney Music Publishing and has served as an adjudicator, clinician, instructor and guest-conductor for many high school and college level events.

Mr. Mogensen’s works have been presented throughout the world, including performances at the esteemed Music Center at Strathmore, the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, and the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic. He has been honored with multiple ASCAP Concert Music Awards as well as the prestigious Colonel Arnald D. Gabriel Composition Prize given by The United States Air Force Band in Washington, D.C. His commissioned work, AERIAL FANTASY, received a 2007 Pulitzer Prize nomination. Mr. Mogensen was also the recipient of a Masterworks Prize for living composers, granted by ERMMedia. His award-winning orchestral composition, CHAPTER FINÁL, will appear on Volume 17 of the CD Series “Masterworks of the New Era”.

Mr. Mogensen is one of the featured composers in volume four of the book series, "Composers on Composing for Band", published by GIA Publications, Inc.

Vincent Patterson

Conductor

Vincent Patterson is the founder and Director of the Maryland Band Directors Band. His Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in conducting is from Catholic University, and his degrees in instrumental performance and music education are from Millikin University. In the U.S. Army, he taught at the Armed Forces School of Music in Norfolk, after which he was accepted into the U.S. Marine Band, The President’s Own. He has sung with the Washington National Opera chorus, has been a member of the Choir of Men and Boys at Washington National Cathedral and the choirs of The National Shrine, St. Paul's Church, and St. Matthews Cathedral. From 1995 to 2010, he was the conductor of the Rockville Concert Band, for which the City of Rockville gave him its Lifetime Achievement in the Arts award in 2007.
