

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES CERTIFICATE: 259

Total Credits: 12

Catalog Edition: 2021-2022

Program Description

The Women's and Gender Studies certificate provides a solid foundation of coursework in the discipline. It provides students with the opportunity to specialize in women's and gender studies in preparation for further work at a four-year institution or for professional, personal and academic opportunities. Students in the program must complete a minimum of 12 credits in women's and gender studies-designated courses: WMST 101 - Introduction to Women's Studies (3 credits) or GNDS 101 - Introduction to Gender Studies (3 credits), and 9 additional credits, including a social sciences course, a humanities course, and a general elective, including WMST 101 or GNDS 101 if not taken as a required course. A 200-level course is recommended.

Program Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, a student will be able to:

- Demonstrate a systematic knowledge of multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary scholarship about women and gender.
- Evaluate the influence gender and sexuality have had on contributions in various disciplines and their recognition in various realms.
- Analyze the ways that hierarchical systems, such as sexism and racism, have functioned, have changed, and have continued to change.
- Connect ideas across disciplines, compare theories with experiences, and contrast different academic perspectives on gender.
- Recognize how an awareness of women's and gender issues and roles in society may positively affect the futures of students (in all disciplines) and as professionals (in all professions).

€<This program is not approved for federal or state student financial aid.
