

MC Women's and Gender Studies Program

WOMEN'S HISTORY

MONTH EVENTS:

March 1st: Vagina Monologues

3 pm, Theater 2, Takoma Park campus. Join us for a compelling reading of Eve Ensler's The Vagina Monologues. Faculty, students, and staff will be reading the script and bringing to life age-old issues surrounding women's bodies.

If you are interested in performing (not memorizing) a monologue, please contact Deb Taylor at deborah.taylor@montgomerycollege.edu or 240 583 0731.

March 5th: Annual Scholarship Award Ceremony

5-7 pm, Cultural Arts Center, Takoma Park Campus

Student Scholarship Awards Ceremony with Keynote Comments by President Jermaine F. Williams with Dr. Brad Stewart, VP/Provost, Dr. Deidre Price, Senior VP Academic Affairs/College Provost, and our "On Their Shoulders We Stand" Award recipient, Dr. Sharon Fechter, Special Assistant to the President for Institutional Initiatives.

To register, contact Leah Snider at leah.snider@montgomerycollege.edu.

March 18th: Screening of *Fight Like Hell: The Testimony of Mother Jones

12- 2, Rockville Campus, Humanities 206 Film screening and Q & A with writer and performer, Kaiulani Lee. Mother Jones, a fiery orator and fearless organizer for workers' rights, known as "the protector of children," and "the miners' angel," in a riveting performance by Lee. Co-sponsored with History and Political Science.

March 25th: What I Am or What I Believe? Gender Ideology and Gender Identity in US Voting

1-2:30 Germantown campus, room TBD. Presenters: Jennifer Haydel and Rachel Sullivan. Contact Rachel Sullivan at rachel.sullivan@montgomerycollege.edu.

To learn more about our Women's and Gender Studies program including our certificate and micro-credential, use this QR code:

