Writing Groups for MC Students

Latinx/Hispanic Writing Workshop

Facilitated by Dr. Emma Muñoz via Zoom every other Tuesday from 1:00-2:00 pm beginning 2/9.

Meeting ID: 922 4379 4762 Passcode: 039772

Conversations will be held mostly in Spanish with some English translations as needed. Native speakers of Spanish and heritage Spanish speakers are encouraged to attend. We will be discussing various literary genre (short stories, poems, essays) written by Latin American authors. Students will be encouraged to share, either verbally or in writing, their thoughts and experiences as they relate to the selected readings.

Black Diaspora Writing Workshop

Facilitated by Professor Charles Washington via Zoom every other Wednesday from 5:00-6:00 beginning 2/10.

Meeting ID: 988 6157 8308 Passcode: 501986

Students are invited to read, discuss, and write literature of the black diaspora and that reflect the black experience. Students will read a variety of literary works (poetry, prose, and non-fiction) by black writers and engage in discussions on the topics that are covered by these writings. Students will also reflect on these literary works and topics on a personal level and as they relate to current events and society.

A Lit Exploration: Journeying through the Black Male Experience

Facilitated by Prof. Brandon Wallace and Dr. Andraé Brown via Zoom every other Friday from 12:00-2:00 beginning 2/12.

Meeting ID: 863 3412 1951

Come join Professor Brandon Wallace and Dr. Andraé Brown as they explore the role of African American literature and culture! In February, we will explore the spectrum of artistry from Brent Staples to DaBaby, specifically as it relates to you and your identity.
