

Resident partners contribute to our innovation district, creating mutually beneficial interactions with our students through a variety of options that ensure consistency with the Rise Zone Incentive.

Intentional connection with Montgomery, but not limited to, hiring students; providing internships, on the job training, employees to serve as adjunct faculty or guest lecturers; sitting on industry advisory boards for curriculum development or review, and/or establishing a scholarship fund for students interested in going into a related field.