

FESTIVAL PARTICIPANTS

Get Out to Vote

Encourage students, faculty, and staff to register to vote.

Elevate Her

Elevate Her is a local nonprofit organization and the Potomac Valley Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. They will assist with voter registration.

Transfer Information

Ms. Angela Rhoe, director of strategic alliances and Rockville Counseling chair, Ms. Elizabeth Kirby, will share transfer information with students and make them aware of their options.

Blood Pressure Screening

Professor Martha Hough, RN, MSN will lead a student group to facilitate blood pressure monitoring. Each student is in their final semester of the Nursing School and are candidates for the Alpha Delta Nu Honor Society.

Workforce Development and Continuing Education (WDCE)

WDCE offers a wide range of noncredit classes designed to meet the needs of county residents and businesses. High quality noncredit courses are available in numerous program areas. Customized contract classes for businesses and government agencies are available at our location or the customer's.

Gudelsky Institute for Technical Education (GITE)

The Homer S. Gudelsky Institute for Technical Education is a public-private joint venture. It has provided state-of-the art technical education and training for more than twenty-five years.

Diaper Drive

The diaper drive is a collaboration of the Education and Social Sciences, CEE Lab School, and ECE Student Success Hub. All diapers will be given to students with young children.

FESTIVAL PARTICIPANTS

Montgomery College and Montgomery County Public Libraries

Ms. Suzette Spencer, director of library and information services, serves on the Montgomery County Library Board and wants to share information on both MC's and Montgomery County Public Libraries. This is an easy way to engage students by having them sign up for a library card and promote its services and resources.

Truth, Racial Healing, and Transformation (TRHT)

Ms. Rose Garvin Aquilino, associate senior vice president for Advancement and Community Engagement, serves as executive sponsor for TRHT which is funded from a grant from AAC&U and the Meyer Foundation. There are a team of ambassadors who have been trained to facilitate Racial Healing Circles, which is a key component of the TRHT Campus Center model.

English & Reading (ENRD) and Visual, Performing, and Media Arts (VPMA)

As part of the growing partnership with F.I.S.T (Fighting Injustice Standing Together) that brings education and empowerment to women who are incarcerated, ENRD and VPMA will collect art supplies and books for F.I.S.T.

Student Health and Wellness Center for Success (SHaW)

It is the College's mission to ensure that no student goes hungry. The mobile markets, campus food pantries, and other food initiatives and programs are here to help. The SHaW Center needs food donations and personal hygiene products. For a list of campus pantry needs, please visit Fuel for Success Food Campaign | Montgomery College, Maryland