

2022 MONTGOMERY COLLEGE SINGLE PARENT VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13 • 9 a.m. – noon

Conference is FREE
REGISTRATION IS OPEN

montgomerycollege.edu/SingleParentConference

Fathers, Mothers, and Guardians: Working Together

Master of Ceremonies:

James Worthy

Established Responsible Fatherhood Practitioner, co-developer of curricula for Responsible Fatherhood & Healthy Relationship Education.

Being a single parent in today's world can be demanding and stressful. If you are a single parent, you are busy raising your children, managing your family's finances, creating life-work balance, and seeking support networks.

Panel Discussion:

Fathers, Mothers, and Guardians, Working Together

Veronica Cruz
Bruce Edwards
Michael Yehl

Montgomery College wants to connect single-parent families with the resources necessary to thrive. In this one-day virtual seminar, you can get the help you need to succeed and talk with other single parents facing similar challenges.

Keynote Speaker:

Wes Watkins

Author, The Life That Created My Own Sound

Panel Discussion:
Communication Is More
Than What We Hear

Elisa Christie Marley
Erin Claxton
Ed Powell

Sponsored by:

