

TOWSON UNIVERSITY • TOWSON, MARYLAND • NEAR WASHINGTON, D.C.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIP 2016 FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

TOWSON UNIVERSITY, a member of the University System of Maryland in the UNITED STATES, is pleased to offer a merit scholarship program for new undergraduate international students. The scholarships are for students who demonstrate a strong record of academic achievement and proficient English skills.

Towson’s scholarship program will enable newly enrolled international students to receive a substantial reduction in their tuition costs and are renewable annually for the duration of their degree program.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Grade Requirement

3.50 - B+

Based on U.S. four point scale

English Requirement

TOEFL 550/213/77 or

IELTS 6.5 or

Grade of "A" in English composition at a U.S. college or university

Estimated expenses in U.S. dollars for the 2016 academic year with a scholarship are:

	Tuition and Fees	Living Expenses	Annual Total
INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP	$12,800	$17,300	$30,100
NO SCHOLARSHIP	$20,800	$17,300	$38,100

To be considered for a scholarship, applicants must submit an undergraduate International Student application and all support documents to the Office of International Admissions by May 15 for the Fall (September) 2016 semester and December 1 for the Spring (January) 2017 semester.

TOWSON UNIVERSITY

Application instructions can be found at www.towson.edu/intladm.
Have questions? Contact irecruit@towson.edu