

Business, Economics, Accounting, Computer Applications and Hospitality Management

Ali Alavi

Since August 2015, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MBA, University of Southern Maine

BS in Business Administration, University of Southern Maine

BS in Electrical Engineering, University of Southern Maine

Highlights:

- 2016 MC-Smithsonian Faculty Fellowship
- NEH Many Voices, One College, Faculty Fellowship, MC Global Humanities Institute, Spring 2018
- Takoma Park Campus Business Club advisor and Enactus, co-advisor, since fall 2015

Rockville HU246; 240-567-5140

ali.alavi@montgomerycollege.edu

Chemistry

Laura Anna

Since August 2011, Rockville

PhD in Organic Chemistry, University of Michigan

BS in Chemistry, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Highlights:

- Full Professor for 14 years at Millersville University, a 4-year university in PA.
- Co-editor of American Chemical Society (ACS) Symposium series books (NMR spectroscopy in the Undergraduate Curriculum, Vol I-III and Strategies Promoting Success of Two-year College Students, in production)
- Member of ACS Examinations Institute Committees, 2017 First-term Organic Chemistry Exam and 2020 First-term Organic Chemistry Exam
- Member of ACS Division of Chemical Education Committee for Personnel and Nominations (2015 – present)

Rockville SC331C; 240-567-5489

laura.anna@montgomerycollege.edu

English & Reading

Sharon Anthony

Since August 1998, Germantown

MA in Instructional Design in English, University of Maryland, Baltimore

BA in Interdisciplinary Studies, Interdisciplinary Emphasis – English and Public Policy, University of Maryland, Baltimore County

Highlights:

- Co-Chair of Montgomery College General Education Standing Committee, 2015 – 2017 and member of General Education Outcomes Assessment & General Education Course Certification work group
- Women's Studies Coordinator, Germantown Campus, 2005-2007, and English 101 Coordinator, Germantown Campus, 2010-2015
- Moderator/introducer of Athenaeum Symposium speakers as well as a summer 2017 Chautauqua guest presenter

Germantown PK 123; 240-567-7769

sharon.anthony@montgomerycollege.edu

Health Sciences

Diane Barberesi

Since August 2004, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MS in Education and Master Certificates in Skilled Facilitation from the Carey School of Business and Adult Education from the School of Education, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD
BS Healthcare Administration, minor in Organizational Development, Columbia Union College, Takoma Park, MD

Highlights:

- Recipient of the SOS Award and Outstanding Service Recognition Award
- Introduced the "Maryland Hospital Association Student Background Check Program" for nursing and the health science programs throughout Maryland
- Serve as legal liaison for the Health Sciences with MC's General Counsel's office
- Co-convener of the Montgomery County Collaboration Board (MCCB) and member of the Holy Cross Hospital Workgroup

Takoma Park/Silver Spring HC436 (within suite 435)

diane.barberesi@montgomerycollege.edu

Engineering, Physical, and Computer Sciences

Nawal Benmouna

Since August 2004, Takoma Park/Silver Spring and Rockville

PhD in Experimental Nuclear Physics, American University with the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center in Palo Alto, California

MS in Physics, American University

BS in Physics, American University

Highlights:

- Principal Investigator of the Montgomery College Collaborative Physics grant awarded by the National Science Foundation to participate in the Muon Scattering Experiment to resolve the proton radius puzzle
- Co-Principal Investigator of the National Science Foundation ACCESS II grant for scholarships for Engineering and Computer Science majors at Montgomery College

Rockville SC436C; 240-567-5240

nawal.benmouna@montgomerycollege.edu

English Language for Academic Purposes (ELAP), Linguistics, and Communication Studies

Rachel Bonaparte

Since August 2013, Rockville

Edd in Educational Leadership, Delaware State University

MEd in Education, Widener University

MA in Mass Communication, Miami University

BA in Broadcasting Telecommunications and Mass Media, Temple University

Highlights:

- Smithsonian Fellow
- Member of the Presidential Advisory Committee on Equity and Inclusion
- Created and spearheading the Annual Career and Communication Studies Symposium that welcomes over 200 students each year

Rockville MT 512A; 240-567-4388

rachel.bonaparte@montgomerycollege.edu

Humanities

Ivonne Bruneau-Botello

Since August 2006, Rockville, Germantown, and Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MA in Second Language Acquisition and Application (SLAA) and Spanish language, University of Maryland, College Park
BA in Mass Communication, University of Panama
Economic Journalism Certificate, Florida International University (FIU)

Highlights:

- Prior to teaching, worked as a journalist for over 8 years
- Board member of the Montgomery College International Studies Program
- Member of the Advisory Board of the MA track in Hispanic Applied Linguistics (HAL) at the University of Maryland, College Park

TP/SS CM202G; 240-567-3993 / 240-429-9559

ivonne.bruneau-botello@montgomerycollege.edu

World Languages and Philosophy

Cristina Daley Butler

Since 2006, Rockville

BA in Spanish Language, Literature, and Cultures, University of Maryland, College Park

MA in Spanish Literature, University of Maryland, College Park

Highlights:

- Specialization in Spanish Caribbean and colonial and Latino literature

Rockville MT 429A; 240-567-7389

cristina.butler@montgomerycollege.edu

Humanities

Sarah Campbell

Since August 2008, Rockville and Germantown

PhD in Spanish, University of Virginia

Highlights:

- Served as World Languages coordinator and Faculty Liaison to the Digital Language Lab on the Rockville campus
- Served on the Rockville Faculty Senate, the Writing, Reading, and Language Center Advisory Committee, the General Studies Committee, and the Transfer Scholarship Coordinating Committee
- Served on the Middle States Standard V Educational Effectiveness Assessment work group

Germantown HS138; 240-567-4166

sarah.campbell@montgomerycollege.edu

Collegewide Integrative Studies

Sara Bachman Ducey

Since August 1990, Rockville

MPH in Environmental Health Science, University of Maryland (College Park)

MS in Human Nutrition, Michigan State University (East Lansing)

BS in Plant and Soil Sciences, University of Massachusetts (Amherst)

Highlights:

- Serves as Convener, Integrative Studies and High Impact Practices Committee, as Paul Peck Humanities Institute (PPHI) director, overseeing the Smithsonian Faculty Fellowship Program, the PPHI Interdisciplinary Humanities Internship Program, and the Portraits of Life: Holocaust Survivors of Montgomery County traveling art exhibit and education program, and an ever-changing set of collaborations across the college
- Chair of Montgomery County's Solid Waste Advisory Committee
- Member of Les Dames d'Escoffier, the Association for the Study of Food and Society, and a long serving officer for the Maryland Nutritionists' Association

Rockville 212B Macklin Tower; 240-567-7333

sara.ducey@montgomerycollege.edu

Business, Economics, Accounting, Computer Applications and Paralegal Studies

Andrea Foster

Since August 2011, Germantown and
Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MBA/MIM, University of Maryland, University College, International Commerce

Graduate Certificates: International Trade, and International Marketing, University of Maryland, University College

MS in Computer Systems Management,
University of Maryland, University College

Highlights:

- Grant to cover tuition and expenses for any Montgomery College student taking BSAD 111 Personal Finance
- Introduced OERs to the Business program at Takoma Park/Silver Spring campus
- Worked as a diplomat and in IT before working in education
- Published a textbook on International business

Germantown HT418 and Takoma Park/Silver Spring P2-221C

andrea.foster@montgomerycollege.edu

Visual and Performing Arts

Norberto Gomez, Jr

Since August 2015

PhD in Media, Art, and Text from Virginia Commonwealth University

MFA in Painting and Drawing, University of Houston

BFA in Studio Art, Texas A&M University Kingsville

Highlights:

- Research and scholarship: media archaeology, digital culture/art, popular culture, new media, horror film and television, aesthetics and critical theory
- Co-founder and editor of Sybil Press, a small print press, based in Baltimore and San Antonio, specializing in hand made print products: artist books, works of theory, philosophy, zines, multicultural bricolage, and other experimental printed subject matter.
- Conference presenter/chair (select): Digital Humanities Conference (Mexico City), Posthumanism Conference (Geneva, Switzerland), Southeastern College Art Conference
- Practicing visual artist, writer, and touring musician

Takoma Park/Silver Spring CF/127; 240-567-5502

norberto.gomez@MontgomeryCollege.edu

Collegewide Disability Support Services

Sue Haddad

Since August 2001, Rockville

MA in Counseling and Personnel Services, University of Maryland
Post-Graduate Certificate in Clinical Counseling, Johns Hopkins University
Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC)

Highlights:

- Experienced in working effectively with a diverse population that includes cognitive, psychological, substance abuse and physical disabilities.
- Acted as the College Access Program Coordinator, Chair of Academic Appeals, co-lead the Outcomes Advising Group, was a collaborator for Combat 2 College, an active member of the Behavioral Intervention Team, Co-Chair of Standard IV for the Middle States Self-Study, and currently serves on the President's Equity and Inclusion Advisory Board.
- Served as Collegewide Chair of DSS since 2014 and is the current President of Maryland AHEAD (Association of Higher Education and Disability)

Rockville CB122-B; 240-567-5087

sue.haddad@montgomerycollege.edu

Engineering, Physics, Computer Science & Technology

David A. Hall

Since August 1999, Germantown and
Takoma Park/Silver Spring

BA in Political Science – Guilford College, NC
MA in Asian Studies – University of Hawaii at Manoa
PhD in Buddhist Studies and Military History – University of California, Berkeley

Highlights:

- Fulbright Fellowship for Japan (dissertation research)
- MCP – Microsoft Certified Professional – Internet Specialization; MCSE – Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer; MCT – Microsoft Certified Trainer in all aspects of MCSE; CCNA – Cisco Certified Network Associate; CCNP – Cisco Certified Network Professional; Cisco Certified trainer in all aspects of CCNA and CCNP requirements
- Numerous publications, including The Buddhist Goddess Marishiten: A Study of the Evolution and Impact of her Cult on the Japanese Warrior, from Brill (Academic), 2014

Germantown HT417; 240-567-7827

david.hall@montgomerycollege.edu

Counseling & Advising

Erica Hepworth

Since August 2012, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

M.S.Ed. – Counselor Education, School Counseling,
St. Bonaventure University

B.S. – Psychology, Counseling & Lifespan Development, Mansfield University

A.S. – Humanities & Social Sciences, Corning Community College

Highlights:

- Helped lead the department and the discipline through the acquisition and implementation of Starfish
- Assisted the discipline during the creation/adoption of the developmental advising model and assisted with the transition from a walk-in model to an appointment-based model for student meetings
- Past experiences include counseling K-12 students and college freshman on academic probation, as well as experience working in human resources with a focus on recruitment, hiring, and on-boarding new employees

Takoma Park/Silver Spring ST/246; 240-567-3920

erica.hepworth@montgomerycollege.edu

Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice

Shinta H. Hernandez

Since January 2007, Rockville and
Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MPP in Social Policy, Georgetown University

BA in Psychology, Brandeis University.

Currently working on completing dissertation in the Sociology
Ph.D. program at the University of Maryland College Park.

Highlights:

- Currently serve as a Co-Chair of the Achieving the Dream Core Team, as Washington, D.C. area representative on the MHEC Faculty Advisory Council, and a member of the General Studies Z-Degree Cross Functional Team.
- Previously served as the Common Course Coordinator in sociology and a Co-Coordinator on the General Studies Degree Program for the Social Sciences, Administration, and Health Core.
- Awarded the Montgomery College Outstanding Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching and Advising for AY 2016-2017 and the NISOD Excellence Award 2018.

Rockville HU225, 240-567-7483; TP/SS NP230, 240-567-5635

shinta.hernandez@montgomerycollege.edu

English and Reading

Teri Hurst

Since August 2000, Takoma Park/Silver Spring,
Germantown, and Rockville

MS in Education, University of Dayton
BS in Education, Pennsylvania State University

Highlights:

- Full-time English/Reading faculty for the Gateway to College Program for 8 years
- Served on CAPDI Committee, Academic Appeals Committees: Rockville AA committee, Summer College-wide Academic Appeals Chair, Chair of the College-wide academic appeals workgroup for academic regulations, Advising Faculty Cadre
- DEAR Committee member — developed the new integrated English, Reading and writing curriculum for the college.
- Developmental English/Reading Coordinator and IERW Coordinator

Rockville MT526; 240-567-4071

teri.hurst@montgomerycollege.edu

Art

Tendai Johnson

Since August 2006, Rockville and Germantown

MFA, Lamar Dodd School of Art, University of Georgia
BFA, Lamar Dodd School of Art, University of Georgia

Highlights:

- Work has been exhibited in both national and international venues and has been a visiting artist/lecturer at numerous institutions including Yale Graduate School of Art and the Keisho Art Association, Japan
- Faculty at Moore College of Art & Design in Philadelphia for ten years
- Lives and works in his studio in Baltimore and is currently part of the exhibit, "The Figure: The Indicative and the Allusive," at the Delaware Contemporary Museum

Rockville AR202, 240-567-7649

tendai.johnson@montgomerycollege.edu

Counseling and Advising

Marcella Karp

Since August 2005, Rockville

MS in Psychology and Counseling, Troy University

BS in Business, Northern Illinois University

Highlights:

- Served as Rockville Campus Council Chair
- Mentoring Project for Women
- Various partnerships with STEM area including work with the GT STEP grant
- Experience in crisis intervention, study skills development, academic advising, and counseling

Rockville CB212; 240-567-5066

marcella.karp@montgomerycollege.edu

Chemical and Biological Sciences

Valerie Lantz

Since August 2007, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

PhD in Molecular Biology, Princeton University

MA in Molecular Biology, Princeton University

BA in Biology, University of Maryland Baltimore County

Highlights:

- Montgomery College Outstanding Full-time Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence for the academic year 2017-2018
- BIOL 150 Course Coordinator
- Biological Sciences Program advisor

Takoma Park/Silver Spring SN214; 240-567-3989

valerie.lantz@montgomerycollege.edu

Collegewide Honors Director and Chair

Lucy E. Laufé

Since August 1992, Germantown and Rockville

PhD in Graduate Certificate in Latin American Studies

Anthropology, University of Pittsburgh

MA in Anthropology, Northwestern University

BA in Anthropology, Grinnell College

Highlights:

- Received a Fulbright-Hays I.I.E. Dissertation Research Grant to support doctoral research in Michoacán, Mexico, and a National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Institute Fellowship to study the Maya in Guatemala and Mexico
- MC's Representative to the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, mentoring 12 of the college's 13 winners of the Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship
- Immediate Past-President of the Maryland Collegiate Honors Council (was President from 2013-2017), and a Board member since 2005.
- Co-Chair Major Scholarship Committee and Member of the Two-Year College Committee with the National Collegiate Honors Council, and recipient of the 2017 Ron Brandolini Award for Excellence at a Two-Year Institution

MT212; 240-567-7453 (office), 240-567-7417 (Commons)

lucy.laufe@montgomerycollege.edu

Chemical and Biological Sciences

Scot Magnotta

Since August 2006, Germantown

PhD in Genetics, University of Connecticut

BS in Biology, Southern Connecticut State University

Highlights:

- Principal Investigator for the S-STEM Grant, On-RAMP to STEM for 6 years
- Biology Department Coordinator for 4 years and Chair of Chemical and Biological Sciences on the Germantown campus for 4 years
- Member of the Holy Cross Health & Montgomery College Operational Steering Committee for the last 4 years

Germantown BE211A; 240-567-6912

scot.magnotta@montgomerycollege.edu

Education and Social Sciences

Dede Marshall

Since August 2010, Germantown

BS in Psychology, Williams Woods University
Masters in Early Childhood Special Education,
George Mason University

Highlights:

- Participated in an ongoing project through the US Consulate, the India Centre for Research and Development of Community Education, and Loyola College, for redesigning the Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC) curriculum in community colleges across India
- Member of the Montgomery County Early Childhood Coordinating Council and representative at the Maryland State Early Childhood Advisory Council
- MC President's Innovation Leadership Institute participant

Germantown HS 140; 240-567-7761

barbara.marshall@montgomerycollege.edu

Nursing

Dianna Matthews

Since August 2004, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MSN, Bowie State University
BSN, American University

Highlights:

- Recipient of "Outstanding Faculty Service Award" and SOS Award
- Served on Governance for 4 years
- Currently serves on the BRTF committee

Takoma Park/Silver Spring HC142 (within suite 135); 240-567-5552

dianna.matthews@montgomerycollege.edu

Counseling and Advising

Katie Mount

Since August 2008, Germantown

MEd in Counseling and Personnel Services,
University of Maryland

BA in Communications, Elon University

Highlights:

- Specializes in working with first-year students, academically at-risk students and veterans
- Helped lead the department and the discipline through the acquisition and implementation of Starfish
- Was previously an academic advisor at Western Carolina University and University of Maryland University College, European and Stateside divisions
- Awarded the Montgomery College Faculty Outstanding Service Award for AY 2014-2015 and the NISOD Excellence Award 2016

Germantown SA240D; 240-567-6966

katie.mount@montgomerycollege.edu

Mathematics, Statistics, and Data Science

Milton H. Nash

Since January 2011, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

PhD in Mathematics, University of Georgia

MA in Mathematics, Princeton University

BS in Mathematics, University of Alabama at Birmingham

Highlights:

- Graduate studies and dissertation were in the area of number theory - more specifically in Diophantine approximation.
- Very active with the Takoma Park Math Club. Math teams have participated in and even won several regional tournaments - including a victory over West Point Military Academy. Greatest pleasure is to see Math Club members graduate and then go on to pursue exciting STEM careers.
- For the past several years, involved with efforts to redesign the developmental math curriculum.

Takoma Park/Silver Spring MP245; 240-567-3973

milton.nash@montgomerycollege.edu

Mathematics, Statistics, and Data Science

Ben Nicholson

Since August 2001, Rockville

PhD and MA in Mathematics from Washington University in St Louis

BS in Mathematics, Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology

Highlights:

- Graduate work is in Commutative Algebra/Algebraic Geometry
- Former Collegewide Faculty Coordinator for Outcomes Assessment
- Data team member for Achieving the Dream

Rockville SC250B; 240-567-5222

Ben.nicholson@montgomerycollege.edu

English Language for Academic Purposes (ELAP), Linguistics, and Communication Studies

Angela Nissing

Since August 2006, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

MA in Applied English Linguistics / ESL, University of Wisconsin-Madison

BA in French and English/Creative Writing, Rhodes College, Memphis, TN

Highlights:

- College-wide Coordinator for ESL Placement
- Member of College-wide Faculty Council and Operational Services Council
- Chair of Chairs, Takoma Park/Silver Spring campus, 2014-2017

Takoma Park/Silver Spring P3-122D; 240-567-1661

angela.nissing@montgomerycollege.edu

English and Reading

Ellen Olmstead

Since August 2006, Takoma Park/Silver Spring

BA Classics, Dartmouth College

MA/ABD Comparative Literature, UMASS Amherst

MEd English Education, Teachers College of Columbia University

Highlights:

- Closing the Achievement Gap, CTAG Implementation Team Academic Affairs Coordinator 2013-2015; appointed to Achieving the Dream 2016-
- Designed and facilitated fellowships and workshops for full-time faculty on appreciating Asian American, Latin@, and LGBTQ students in MC classrooms 2007-2014; mentor in Teaching Excellence Academy 2017-
- Equity and Inclusion Steering Committee 2007-2011; appointed to President's Advisory Committee for Equity and Inclusion Committee 2017-
- Rockville campus and college-wide coordinator of developmental writing 2007-2012; facilitated redesign of developmental reading and writing 2015-2017
- TP/SS Chair of Chairs 2015-

Takoma Park/Silver Spring P3/122E; 240-567-1385

ellen.olmstead@montgomerycollege.edu

Collegewide Health Enhancement, Exercise Science and Physical Education

Elizabeth Ridings

Since August 2005, Rockville

MA in Exercise Science & Fitness Management,
University of Connecticut

BS in Exercise Physiology, James Madison University

Highlights:

- Worked in the health and fitness industry for ten years prior to becoming a full-time faculty member at Montgomery College.
- Experience managing fitness and wellness programs in collegiate, commercial and corporate settings.
- Certified by the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) as a Certified Exercise Physiologist and as a Physical Activity in Public Health Specialist.

Rockville PE236A; 240-567-7576

elizabeth.ridings@montgomerycollege.edu

Mathematics, Statistics, Data Science

Darren Smith

Since August 1999, Germantown

BS in Math, Howard University

MS in Math Ed, Hood College

Highlights:

- Coordinate all distance Mathematics, Statistics, & Data Science courses college-wide
- Collaborate with other 2-year and 4-year partner institutions in the state of Maryland on the First in The World Grant and developed a pre-Statistics course for Montgomery College
- Meet with incoming Bridge Students during the summer

Germantown HT129; 240-567-1914

darren.smith@montgomerycollege.edu

Education and Psychology

Zeporia N. Smith

Since August 2002, Rockville and
Takoma Park/Silver Spring

PhD in Special Education - Bilingual Special Education, George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

MA in Curriculum and Instruction - Bilingual Special Education, George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

BA in Spanish, minor in Psychology, Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio

Highlights:

- More than 20 years of experience in curriculum and program development using culturally relevant pedagogy and success strategies for culturally and linguistically diverse community college students
- Developed and successfully implemented a college-wide Field Experience Program with a current annual enrollment of 200 future teachers for the Montgomery College School of Education
- Designed and implemented the teacher cohort program, CREATE (Culturally Responsive Educators Aspiring for Teaching Excellence), using student success strategies. The CREATE Teacher Cohort program supports an enrollment of more than 80 pre-service teachers.

Rockville CS127; 240-567-7192; TP/SS RC201, 240-567-7192

Zeporia.smith@montgomerycollege.edu

History and Political Science

Joseph A. Stumpf

Since August 2005, Rockville

PhD in Art History and Archaeology,
University of Missouri – Columbia

MA in Classical Archaeology, University of British Columbia

BA in Classics, University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill

Highlights:

- Regular Member and Associate Member of American School of Classical Studies in Athens and Member of the American School of Oriental Research 2004
- Specializes in Greek and Roman history in particular the cultural history of Greece under the Roman Empire
- Fifteen seasons of experience on archaeological excavations in the US, Italy, Jordan and Greece

Rockville HU274; 240-567-7280

joseph.stumpf@montgomerycollege.edu

Media Arts and Technologies

Erik Swanson

Since August 2008, Rockville

MFA in 3D Modeling and animation, Academy of Art in San Francisco, California

BFA in painting, Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Highlights:

- As an art director and freelancer, has worked with clients such as Wendy's, the 76ers, Chick Fil A, 6 Flags, Image Comics, Oni Press, Idea and Design Works, and Mirage Studio.
- Worked on properties like The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, GI Joe, and Star Trek
- Currently sits on the advising committee for Arts on the Block, a non-profit organization based out of Maryland

Rockville TC 128; 240-567-4417

John.Swanson@montgomerycollege.edu

Biology

K. Rebecca Thomas

Since August 2005, Rockville

PhD in Evolutionary Biology, University of Chicago, IL
MS in Evolutionary Biology, University of Chicago, IL
BS in Biology, Samford University, Birmingham, AL

Highlights:

- Trained as an evolutionary biologist with expertise in ichthyology
- Served as adjunct faculty coordinator for Biology Department, Rockville (9 years) & initiated new procedures for hiring and supporting adjuncts
- Engaged in curriculum initiatives incorporating quantitative skills and interdisciplinary approaches in biology courses; e.g., co-developed a new course (BIOL 252), currently developing environmental science materials via a faculty network with QUBES & SESYNC (National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center)
- Initiated and currently coordinating the new Science Center Food Basket, an effort to address food insecurity among MC students

Rockville, Science Center 234C; 240-567-4224

rebecca.thomas@montgomerycollege.edu

Performing Arts

Alvin F. Trask

Since August 2005, Rockville and Germantown

Master of Music, Howard University
Additional studies at the Thelonious Monk Institute, Dolo, Italy, and the Eastman School of Music
Bachelor of Music, Louisiana State University

Highlights:

- Visiting Evaluator for National Association of Schools of Music
- Active performer in the Washington Metropolitan area and the Mid-Atlantic Region

Rockville and Germantown; TA 124; 240-567-7551

alvin.trask@montgomerycollege.edu

English Language for Academic Purposes (ELAP), Linguistics, and Communication Studies

Jorinde van den Berg

Since August 1999, Germantown

PhD in English Literature and minor in Art and Art History,
Union Institute & University, Cincinnati, OH

MA in English, Katholieke Universiteit - Nijmegen, the Netherlands

Certificate of Higher Professional Education in English, Katholieke Leergangen - Tilburg, the Netherlands

BA in English and French, Katholieke Leergangen - Tilburg, the Netherlands

- Main writer and manager of the college wide ELA1990 Student Success Modules, a computer program that caters to the individual language needs of non-native speakers
- Dutch-American and travel extensively so that I can relate to our students in a better way - culturally as well as an immigrant
- Speak English, Dutch, French, German, and can understand some Italian and Spanish

Germantown HS141; 240-567-6900

jorinde.vandenberg@montgomerycollege.edu

Collegewide General Studies

Samantha Streamer Veneruso

Since August 2002, Rockville

MA in Instructional Systems Design, ESOL/Bilingual
Programs and K-12 ESOL Certification – UMBC

BA in Humanities, Washington College

ABD EdD in Organizational Leadership from Northeastern University, anticipated completion date, May 2019

Highlights:

- Leading General Studies eportfolio pilot
- Rockville, English Department Chair 2009-2012; Curriculum Committee member 2003-2005, 2013-2015;
Academic Services Council, 2018-2019
- Collegewide Outcomes Assessment Coordinator, 2004-2009, 2012-2013

Rockville MT226A; 240-567-7940

samantha.veneruso@montgomerycollege.edu

Applied Technologies/ Gudelsky Institute for Technical Education (GITE)

Chantal Vilmar

Since August 2003, Rockville

MSE in Supervision and Administration in the Visual Arts, Bank Street College of Education

BA in Interior Design, Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT)

Highlights:

- Responsible for managing the following programs: Architecture, Automotive Technology, Building Trades Technology, Construction Management, Applied Geography, Interior Design, and Landscape Technology.
- 20 years of experience in teaching and leadership in a community college setting
- Served as advisor for the National Symphony Orchestra Designer's Show House and Historic Ellicott City Designer's Show House Student Design Teams

Rockville HU246; 240-567-5140

Chantal.vilmar@montgomerycollege.edu