MEMORANDUM

To: Montgomery College Students

From: Christopher Moy, Director of ADA and Title IX Compliance

Subject: Notice of Non-Discrimination

Montgomery College is committed to equal opportunity that assures access, equity, and diversity in its educational programs and activities. The College prohibits discrimination against any person on the basis of age, color, citizenship status, current or former military status, disability, gender, gender identity and expression, genetic information, national origin, marital status, race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation.

In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments, Montgomery College prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct. "Sexual misconduct" is an umbrella term that encompasses various types of prohibited conduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual exploitation, sexual intimidation, and stalking. Sexual misconduct will not be tolerated and the College will consider any violation as a significant act of misconduct that will result in disciplinary action. When made aware of possible discrimination, the College will take prompt action to end the sexual misconduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. For more information about grievance procedures, see MC's Sexual Misconduct Policy, #31001.

Questions regarding non-discrimination or Title IX, or to file a complaint, please contact the College's Title IX Coordinator: Mr. Christopher Moy, Title IX Coordinator, 900 Hungerford Drive, Suite 315G. Rockville, MD 20850, 240-567-5412, christopher.moy@montgomerycollege.edu

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act as Amended (ADAAA 2009), Montgomery College prohibits discrimination based on disability in its educational programs and activities. Questions regarding disability discrimination grievance process and/or requests for accommodations may be directed to:
