

ELITE TPSS Workgroup Notes

11/01/2019 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

WRL Center Meeting Room

In Attendance: Phil Bonner; Tanya Camp; Tracey Smith-Bryant; Camille Cauley; Corinne Smith

- Updates on Recent Workshops:
 - Engaging Quiet Students – 6 attendees; well received
- November 8 Workshop
 - Refugees and Asylees in Maryland: The Current State of Affairs
 - 15 registered as of 11/01
- The tentative workshop for Nov. 5 will be rescheduled
 - Phil will contact Prof. Areke about a new date
- Workshops for Spring 2020
 - 3 confirmed
 - 2 still in process – waiting to hear back from presenters
 - Plan one “roundtable” for February
- Looking into doing Engaging Quiet Students for WD&CE faculty (AELG)
 - Phil will discuss with Annie Welsh and Fetwi Gubsa
 - To be held at Westfield South
 - Since AELG instructors are paid from grant, they would be paid for attending
 - All trainings/workshops for AELG faculty must meet DLLR’s (the grantor) definition of essential training
- Professional Week Theme
 - TPSS theme is “working with under-prepared students”
 - Current plan is one morning and one afternoon workshop
 - Possibly two roundtables – one possibly on technologically under-prepared students

Meeting Began: 10:05 a.m.

Meeting Adjourned: 11:00 a.m.
