

Montgomery College Rising Professionals Association (MCRPA) Member Spotlight - December 2020

Beth Reilly

1. How long have you worked at Montgomery College, and what is your current role?

I started at MC in Dec 2016. I work in Student Employment Services as the Student Employment Specialist.

2. Who inspires you?

My students – their strength, resilience, and tenaciousness.

3. What is your favorite thing about working at MC?

The rich tapestry of diverse staff, faculty, and students that I learn from daily.

4. How long have you been in your current profession?

Having worked in High Education/Community Colleges for over 20 years, I have experience in various Student Affairs departments at 4 different community colleges, as well as, Adjunct Professor in Student Success, Psychology, and Communications departments.

5. What is one goal you hope to achieve this year?

Creating Instagram page for the Student Employment Services office

6. What is your favorite quote?

“The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today.” – H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

7. What are you interested in that most people haven’t heard of?

Personal: Rett Syndrome Awareness – a neurological disorder

Professionally: Various career assessments: Clifton Strengths, True Colors, and Myers-Briggs

8. What do you enjoy the most about MCRPA?

Meeting new people, attending the meetings with guest speakers and learning from them and MCRPA colleagues.