1. What is your role at Montgomery College?

I have worked at MC since December 2003. I began my career at the College as an Office Assistant in IT and was promoted to Administrative Aide in the Grants Office in October 2006. I am currently an Administrative Aide III and provide administrative support to the Associate SVP of Advancement and Community Engagement and for the Office of Grants and Sponsored Programs.

2. How long have you been in your current profession?

I celebrated fifteen years at the College on December 1, 2018. However, my experience in this field goes way back to when I was a high school intern.

3. How do you define success?

Success to me is accomplishing a goal that you are passionate about pursuing and driven to achieve. There is nothing like crossing that finish line!

4. What hobby would I get into if time and money were not an issue?

I love that the College is one of the most diverse community colleges in the country. The students come from different backgrounds and experiences. I am always inspired by hearing how they've overcome obstacles to pursue their education. Commencement is always a special moment time for me, especially as a former MC student myself.

5. What are you currently passionate about?

I am passionate about setting new goals and adventures for myself and fulfilling them. I regularly look for self-improvement and professional development opportunities. I also enjoy writing Yelp reviews as a way to strengthen my writing skills.

6. What is one goal you hope to achieve this year?

One goal I set in 2018 but didn't achieve was doing a pull up (in the gym) on my own. That's one of my goals that I hope to achieve this year. It sounds simple, but it's much harder than I thought.

7. What is your favorite quote?

Work like you don't need the money. Love like you've never been hurt. Dance like nobody's watching.
– Satchel Paige All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them. – Walt Disney

8. What hobby would you get into if time and money weren't an issue?

It is such a cliché, but I would have to say traveling the world. There is so much to see in the world and learning about other cultures is very exciting to me. I traveled to Europe for the first time last year. It was my first time on another continent.

9. They say that everyone has a book in them. What would be the title of your book?

"Carrollisms" - A zany, fun selection of quotes, bloopers, and anecdotes by Carroll Rollman

10. What do you want to be remembered for?

I want to be remembered for bringing laughter and joy into the lives of others.
