

Montgomery College Enriches the Life of Our Community Through Partnerships and Collaboration

Business and Industry

- Workforce training
- Access to expertise and equipment
- Student interns
- Talent pipeline

K-12 Schools and Universities

- Achieving Collegiate Excellence (ACES)
- Transfer and articulation agreements
- Teacher training programs
- Dual enrollment and early college

Community Organizations

- ESL and ESOL training
- Community Engagement Centers
- Literacy and GED programs
- Meeting space and content experts

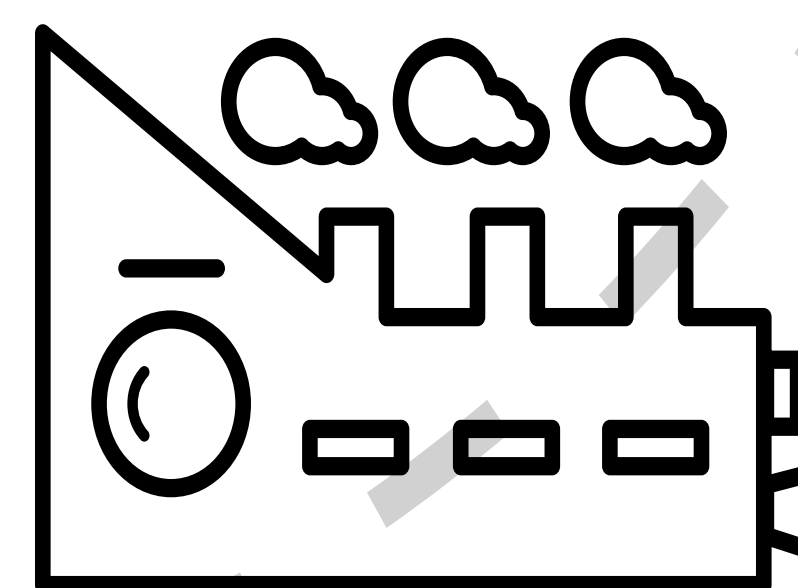

Local Arts and Artists

- Parilla and Cafritz Performing Arts Centers
- Chautauqua Series
- Special artists series and exhibitions
- Summer Dinner Theater

Global Partnerships

- The Global Humanities Institute
- Faculty and student exchange
- US-Asia Links trade partnerships

Economic Development

- Pinkney Innovation Complex for Science and Technology (PIC MC)
- Germantown Business Incubator
- $1.4 billion contribution to local economy

Four Key Questions to Consider When Deciding to Partner

1. What are our shared strategic priorities?
2. How will we manage our efforts across multiple programs?
3. What will we do vs. work with partners to do?
4. How will we ensure successful outcomes?