

Student Employment Service (SES)
Report of Remote Service from July 1st, 2020 to September 30th, 2020

Student Employment Services (SES) provided individual assistance and group workshops to students through a variety of online platforms. SES has collaborated with other departments and employers to facilitate pre-employment skills training and job/internship opportunities for students. Some of the highlights for this quarter include; (3) workshops related to applying for Federal jobs/internships held on Sept 17th & 18th attended by 499 students. A Federal Job Fair on September 25th that included 50 Federal agencies and attended by 105 students. A job search workshop for F-1 students attended by 22 students, (2) Workforce Recruitment Program orientations related to Federal internship opportunities for DSS students attended by 11 students, A job search workshop provided to Certified Phlebotomy Technician students and attended by 18 students. In addition, to workshops and large events, the SES team provided individual assistance to 479 students and 97 new employers during the quarter.

- New Student Registrations on ejobs- 112 (alumni --11 and MC students--101)
- New Employer Registrations on ejobs -97
- Number of employer new ejobs job postings -683
- Number of student resumes submitted -109
- Number of student resumes approved -106
- Student individual appointments or remote assistance -479
- Number of students attending online SES workshops -359
- Number of students attending industry specific job fairs (remote work) -607 (This number includes MC student and other student from different university, the MC students is 176)

Student Employment Services (SES) provides workshops and classroom presentations on the following topics; Resume Writing, Interview Skills, Using Social Media in Your Job Search, Resume Writing for International Students, Negotiating Salaries.