

Fulbright Specialist Program

The Fulbright Specialist Program provides U.S. citizens who are well-established academics and professionals with opportunities to serve as expert consultants and engage in short-term, project-based exchanges at a range of institutions across the globe.

- 2-6 week projects focused on education, training, or capacity building in 24 eligible disciplines
- ~400 projects annually in 150+ eligible countries
- Specialist benefits include round-trip economy class international airfare, $100 transit allowance, $200 daily honorarium, required visa fees, and limited benefits health plan. Host institutions provide lodging, meals, and in-country transportation.
- Roster-based structure: U.S. applicants apply for a three-year tenure on the Fulbright Specialist Roster, during which time they may match with projects proposed by overseas institutions
- Administered by World Learning

Sample Project Activities

- Delivering seminars, training or workshops
- Consulting on faculty or workforce development
- Developing academic or training curricula and materials
- Giving lectures at the graduate or undergraduate level
- Conducting needs assessments or evaluations for a program or institution
- Supporting accreditation process for a university program
- Engaging in strategic planning activities

Program Structure

- Host-driven structure: overseas institutions develop and submit project proposals.
- U.S. individuals must apply for admission to the Fulbright Specialist Roster and be approved by peer review panel.
- If admitted, Roster candidates receive a three-year tenure during which they may be matched with projects.
  - Submitting interest for an open project
  - Nomination by the host institution (named project)
