What Is TRiO?

TRiO Student Support Services is a federally funded program providing a variety of free services to increase the college retention, graduation, and transfer of its participants and facilitate the process of transition from one level of higher education to the next. If you are eligible for the program, you will receive one-on-one advising on a regular basis; access to tutoring and mentoring; and many other academic, financial, and career support services.

TRiO Student Support Services is committed to helping you achieve your educational goals.

“

TRiO really helped me transition into the college environment by providing support and advising while achieving my academic goals. I was equipped to succeed with their help whenever I needed it. Thank you TRiO for having my back and helping me stay on track!

Montgomery College is an academic institution committed to promoting equal opportunity and fostering diversity among its students, faculty, and staff.

Who Benefits from TRiO Student Support Services?

Every year, thousands of students from around the United States benefit from TRiO programs. Academy Award-winning actress Viola Davis, former NBA star A. C. Green, and NASA astronaut Franklin Chang-Diaz are among the many students who have benefitted from TRiO Student Support Services.

Who Is Eligible for This Program?

To participate in Student Support Services at Montgomery College, you must be enrolled at Montgomery College in nine credit hours or more during the academic semester.

In addition, you must have an academic need, be a US citizen or a permanent resident (uscis.gov/greencard), and meet at least one of the following criteria:

- First-generation college student: Neither of your parents completed a bachelor's degree.
- Low-income college student: You must meet the current Federal Income Guidelines.
- Student with a disability (documented and referred by the Montgomery College's Disability Support Services).

“

Knowing that there was always someone I could go to for support put me at ease. Thank you for helping me realize my potential and get the most out of my experience here at MC. Thank you, TRiO!
