Important information:

- All fall classes will only be offered via Zoom
- You must register by October 4, 2020.
- All new students will take a placement test. After you register, you will receive information to make a testing appointment.
- If you are a returning student, we will ask for your M#, level, and last teacher's name. If you don't remember some of these, that is okay. Just tell us what you remember.
- Some returning students might need a test. We will tell you if you need a test.
- You can take a regular ESOL class and a Workplace English class. If you want to know more about Workplace English classes, look here: <https://www.montgomerycollege.edu/workforce-development-continuing-education/english-language-skills/workplus/index.html>
- You cannot take two ESOL classes or two Workplace English classes. You can only take one of each.
- You must live in Maryland to take these classes
- You must be at least 18 years old to take these classes
- Students with F1 or J1 visa cannot take classes in this program. Contact ESL-Rockville@montgomerycollege.edu, if you have a F1 or J1 visa and want to take ESOL classes.

If you have any questions or concerns, you can reach out to ESOL@montgomerycollege.edu
