

Montgomery College, Worksource Montgomery, and Montgomery County Government presents

5G BROADBAND BOOTCAMP

Prepare for a career in 5G technology and be part of the future!

This FREE intensive 5-week, 60-hour program is designed to equip participants with the essential skills needed to excel as fiber optic and wireless antenna installation field technicians. A wireless technician starting rate is at $21/hr.

Location: Hybrid: in-person at Montgomery College Gudelsky Institute and online.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Career placement
- Free training
- Apprenticeships
- Supportive services

TARGET POPULATIONS

- People seeking telecommunications technical careers
- Veterans
- Underemployed youth age 16 to 26
- Entry-level workers

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Authorized to work in the US
- Resident of Maryland or Washington area including Northern Virginia
- High school diploma or GED
- Unemployed or underemployed

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

All steps must be completed in sequence to ensure program enrollment.

1. Sign up for WorkSource Montgomery's Orientation: "Getting Started with WorkSource" (offered twice weekly) <https://tinyurl.com/23wbz6mg>
2. Create or Log into MWE -Access your Maryland Workforce Exchange (MWE) account. Need help? Email: enrollment@worksourcemontgomery.com
3. Attend 5G Broadband Bootcamp Information Session prior to Bootcamp start date.
4. Complete Montgomery College Registration form. Registration link provided after completing steps 1 -3.

The 5G Broadband Job Training Bootcamp is 100 percent funded by the U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration through an award for $1,000,000

www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce
240-567-5188