The Lifelong Learning Institute is committed to creating intellectually stimulating educational opportunities for Montgomery County residents age 50 and over. Adults of any age may register for these classes. Students 60+ pay fee only.
Dear Students and Community Members,

Wishing a Happy and Healthy 2024 to all! May one of your new resolutions be to grow with knowledge, new social connections, and healthy living!

This is where the Lifelong Learning Institute can help with a broad range of fascinating courses and learning opportunities. For instance, challenge yourself with our new classes in drawing cartoons and caricatures, painting with watercolors and acrylics, and taking photographs with a camera and/or iPhone/iPad.

Other classes in the Spring Semester allow you to travel in time to the world of Vikings, explore the wonders of political and cultural systems of ancient Greeks and Romans, and delve into the Spanish Golden Age. Or you may want to keep current on the most pressing issues of the day by taking these classes—An Insight into Politics and Current Events, Gun Control and the Second Amendment; Decisions of the Supreme Court; and The Changing World of Alliances. Be enriched by the expertise of brilliant instructors like Professor Naomi Daremblum, Professor Joel Cockrell, Professor Candice Groudine and many others. For example, one of the students had this to say about Professor Daremblum: “As always, Naomi presented a wealth of information in a very understandable manner. The class discussions were spirited and informative. In short, it was a great class.”

For those who enjoy superb literature discussions, there are classes on Timeless Literature Pieces, Great American Short Stories, The Life and Literature of Agatha Christie and many others. You may want to share your family stories and create a meaningful gift for your family by taking a class on Writing Memoirs, Writing Memories.

As I mentioned, we have brilliant faculty members. Another one of these is Professor Dorian Janney, a NASA instructor who brings to Lifelong Learning Institute students a deep expertise in astronomy, environmental science and climate change. Professor Janney will offer a class, The Sun, Earth, and Moon! that includes a trip to NASA

In addition, many of our students strive to keep up and capture knowledge of new technology. We offer free classes on iPhone and iPad. Please watch for announcements in our e-newsletter. To understand the ever-changing trends in technology, you may also want to join our class, Modern Technology.

We are looking forward to seeing you in our classrooms and on Zoom. In addition to richness of learning experience, our classes offer a great way for students to get to know one another and expand friendships.

Come and learn with us!

Art History
A Cultural Tour of Renaissance Europe (NEW)
What prompted the Renaissance revolution in the styles and subjects of architecture, paintings, sculpture and literature? What was the source of their inspiration? How was the face of Europe changed? This course tours the artistic gems of the Renaissance in the cities where they flourished-Florence, Rome, Paris, London and Antwerp. This tour takes us through Dante’s poetry, the Medici gardens in Florence, the chapels & palaces of Rome and the jewels of the Petit Palais in Paris. Farther north in Antwerp, we encounter Van Eyck, Durer and Bruegel; in England, the works of John Donne, Christopher Marlowe and William Shakespeare. What Came After Impressionism? (NEW)
The modernist style of Post-Impressionism was led by Paul Cézanne, Paul Gauguin, Vincent van Gogh, Georges Seurat, and Odilon Redon. The movement rejected the naturalism of Impressionism and used color and form not to describe reality but to express emotions. Their use of non-naturalistic colors, emphasis on flatness and simplification made the Fauvist, Cubist and Expressionist movements possible. TWA

Meditation and the Wisdom of the Body
Have you ever had a “gut feeling” about a situation or conversation? Have you ever felt you had something to say but you didn’t know what? We know that the body carries important messages for our overall wellbeing, but we often tune them out. This course provides practical ways to come to know the wisdom of the body. We’ll meditate in a body-based manner to experience greater ease and basic clarity. And we’ll go further, gently exploring the body’s responsiveness, its feel for a situation, thought or event. Through experiential learning in class and easy homework assignments, we’ll come to understand the basics of Somatic Meditation and explore the process of Focusing, as developed by Eugene Gendlin. This course requires no previous meditation or focusing experience. TWA

AI & Social Media: A Future of Fake Information? (NEW)

New Content! AI is seemingly everywhere these days—navigating our cars, answering questions for us through Alexa or Siri or selecting the movies and tv shows we watch. It is also flooding social media with images of events and people that don’t exist or giving disinformation a powerful tool to create ‘news reports’ full of falsehoods that easily pass for the real thing. In this course we will explore how AI is changing the nature of social media. For example, is AI making fake news worse, or can it be a tool to help against disinformation? Should we worry that AI image and text generators have advanced to the point that they are on the verge of making detection of fabricated information impossible? Come find out, the future is now. Oppenheimer’s Legacy: The Race for the Bomb, the Rosenbergs and the Real Network of Atomic Spies (NEW)
In the midst of WWII the United States raced to construct a nuclear bomb under the direction of Robert Oppenheimer. After its use against Japan and to Oppenheimer’s great regret, other countries tried to replicate America’s success and create an atomic arsenal of their own. The Soviet success in 1949 raised alarms of an intelligence failure. How did they so precisely replicate the Oppenheimer bomb? Two years later Julius and Ethel Rosenberg would be accused, convicted and executed for passing atomic secrets to the Soviet Union. The network of spies that actually stole the bomb and passed its secrets on to the communists were never identified and evaded capture. This course examines the history of the Manhattan Project under Oppenheimer and the spies who managed to steal his creation.

We will discuss the need to eliminate the use of invasive species in our region, as well as options to replace these too common species within our landscape. The course covers both native species and selected non-native species, and the need to choose woody ornamentals as a long term investment. Emphasis will be placed on species native to the region better suited to the residential site, and how proper selection of species reduces the need for pruning and reduces the maintenance required. There will be a focus on how to create living low maintenance gardens that will endure. Additional content includes the need for soil and water testing prior to planting, as well as, how to access testing facilities as well as the Tree Montgomery program, the Rain Garden program, and the Street Tree programs within Montgomery County. This course is designed for professional landscapers and/or volunteer/home gardeners. TWA

Introduction to Gender Studies (CoL)
Join us for a multicultural, interdisciplinary introduction to the study of gender in contemporary society. Readings, films, and discussions explore how gender matters in a person’s daily life; how that impact is socially constructed both historically and cross-culturally; and how gender permeates institutions in societies, operating as a system of power and reinforcing distinctions that contribute to inequality. This course investigates gender as it intersects with race-ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age, and ability, to shape diverse femininities and masculinities. In discovering the nature of gender and by reflecting on their unique location within power structures, you will explore the possibility of change for equality and assume more engaged forms of citizenship. Greatest American Short Stories (NEW)
Join our discussion of the greatest American short stories, and consider the ways they both uphold and challenge the great American myth! America is a land of hope and aspiration, of great American Dreams and high principles, but also of strife, struggle, and inequity. Over the years, American writers have captured the stories of this great, and complicated, experiment in democracy, as well as stories of the individual lives contained therein. As we analyze American stories old and new, we will also form our own understandings of what makes these stories relevant to our modern lives. The course reading list is available on the LLI website. Novels of the Academic World (NEW)

The world of academia has provided material for a wide range of authors viewing it in ways ranging from comic to tragic, from bemused to outraged. Among the works we will read are satires, stories about personal growth or disillusion, character studies and thrillers. They are both American and English and range from the early 1950’s to the early 2020’s. We will begin with Vladimir Nabokov’s Pnin which students should read before coming to the first class. Each novel assigned for this class can be read within a week. The reading list is posted on the Lifelong Learning Institute’s website. TWA

Timeless Literature Pieces (NEW)
What defines a work of literature as a classic? Is it because these works, over time, continue to speak to us in new ways and ask us to reconsider them and re-examine our response to them? This class will read literary works that raise these issues and, perhaps, stand as examples of “classics.” Italo Calvino’s 1991 definitions of a classic will anchor class discussion. Readings include Calvino’s If on a Winter’s Night a Traveler, Le Carré’s The Spy Who Came in from the Cold, a brief excerpt from Proust’s Swann’s Way, Chaucer’s The Miller’s Prologue and Tale, and Gabriel Garcia Marquez’s One Hundred Years of Solitude. Writing Memoirs, Writing Memories
Whether you wish to pass on the family heritage to your grandchildren, tell some of the funny stories or interesting events of your life, or if you want to explore your past in order to discover your own reality, writing is a wonderful way to begin. Writing for a group of other people who have stories to tell and who are also working to find the best way to tell them is a good way to begin and to keep going. In this class, students will form a writing group where they will share ideas, experiences, and some of the rewards and frustrations of writing.

Music
A Rush of Genius: Musical Brilliance of Mozart’s Final Year (NEW)
As 1791 dawned, Mozart was at the height of his popularity. By year’s end, he would be dead just short of his 36th year. However, in those final 12 months he would come to compose some of the most beloved music of all time including a final piano concerto, his cherished clarinet concerto, the exquisite, elegant motet Ave verum corpus, his powerful Requiem (although left unfinished), two operas, La clemenza di Tito and one of the most famous of all operas The Magic Flute. This course is an in-depth look into Mozart’s final works of genius as well as Mozart’s life and music in general, and the milieu of late 18th century Vienna. No musical experience required; only an appreciation.

The Four Symphonies of Robert Schumann

Regarded primarily as a composer of lieder (song) and piano music, Robert Schumann’s four symphonies are perennial favorites of conductors, orchestras and audiences alike. His four symphonies are considered standard repertoire for orchestras the world over. Schumann was also a respected music critic and used his influence to heralded a young Johannes Brahms as the future of music. This course will examine the life and music of Schumann with an in-depth survey of his beloved four symphonies. TWA

Tai Chi for Physical and Mental Well-being-Summer Fitness
It is common knowledge that exercise is beneficial to both physical and mental health. While there are many forms of gentle exercise practiced today, tai chi, an ancient Chinese tradition, is widely popular and beneficial. In this course, you will learn a variety of graceful, slow movements performed in a focused manner and accompanied by deep breathing. These low impact movements put minimal stress on muscles and joints. Some of tai chi benefits are: decreased stress, anxiety and depression; increased energy, stamina, flexibility, and balance; lower blood pressure; and enhanced quality of sleep.

Residential Policy

The following are general guidelines taken from the College policy on residency for tuition purposes. A complete copy of the policy is available in the Montgomery College Catalog.

A. Students attending Montgomery College will pay tuition according to their residency classification.

   To qualify for in-state tuition, a student must be a U.S. Citizen, Permanent Resident or have a qualifying Visa status.

B. To qualify, for tuition purposes, as a resident of the state of Maryland, legal domicile must have been maintained for a period of not less than three months prior to the first regularly scheduled class for the semester; unless you are a member of the Military covered under HB935.

C. The domicile of a person registering in a noncredit course at Montgomery College shall be considered as a person’s permanent place of abode, where physical presence and possessions are maintained, and where he/she intends to remain indefinitely.

Refund Policy

Refunds are paid at 100% for classes canceled, dropped online, or in person (using a Drop Form), prior to the start date of the class.

Refunds are also paid at 100% if class is dropped prior to the Refund Date printed on your registration confirmation. DO NOT drop classes online. You will not receive a refund.

ESL Noncredit students must call 240-567-7262 for refund/withdrawal instructions. Refunds for open enrollment classes will go to the registered student of record. For the Drop Form and more information, visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/register/refundpolicy.html.

Transfer Policy

To transfer from one CRN to another CRN of the same course, a letter must be received in the Admissions, Records, and Registration Office, Montgomery College, 51 Mannakee Street, Rockville, MD 20850 before the beginning date of both CRNs of the course. If you have enrolled in a co-listed course you will have only one day after the class has begun to transfer.

After that, you are committed to your path for the remainder of the course. If the course has a required assessment level to be a credit student, you must first complete the assessment testing and meet the appropriate assessment level before you can change to credit status.

Tuition Waiver

Only noncredit courses designated "tuition waiver applies" in each publication will be available for tuition waiver. This statement appears in each applicable course description. Only tuition is waived; required fees must be paid by the student. Documents must be received at time of registration.

Senior Tuition Waiver (TWA): Maryland residents 60 years or older by the start date of the class may have tuition waived.

Disability Tuition Waiver: Please go to montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/register/disabilitywaiver.html for information.

National Guard Tuition Waiver: If you are currently a member of the Maryland National guard and are enlisted for at least a 24-month period, you are eligible for a 50 percent tuition waiver. You must submit proof of such from the adjutant general's office.

VA-Approved Course: Courses indicated with this VAA code are approved for VA educational benefits under Title 38, U.S.C., Section 3676. (Post 9/11 GI Bill). For more information, visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/registerops.html.

Co-Listed Classes

Classes marked with this code Col are co-listed. They are offered so that students may register either for credit or continuing education (noncredit) status. Co-listing gives students an option to choose the best path for their educational needs. Each section includes both credit and noncredit students. For students seeking credit classes, please consult the credit course schedule. The expectations for attendance, participation, and effort are the same for all students. Instructors will announce policies concerning class activities.

Room Numbers

Room numbers will be printed on your registration receipt for classes held on our campuses. Please be sure to keep the receipt for your records. Room numbers can also be found online.
