Message from the Program Director

Dear Lifelong Learning Institute Students,

The warmer weather and increased availability of vaccines are signs that we may gradually begin to get back to normal, while still maintaining proper precautions.

In that regard, our Summer Semester classes will continue to take place online to provide for the safety of our students, faculty, and staff.

From the comforts of your home, you can travel around the world with Professor Naomi Daremblum learning about history and culture of the Baltics, discussing similarities and differences between political and societal structures of North and South Korea, and exploring Venice through art and literature. There are also classes that focus on local history—“Off-the-Beaten Path in Montgomery County,” “History of Enslavement in the District of Columbia: Virtual Tour,” and “The Architecture of Washington D.C.”

For lovers of literature and film, we are offering “International Short Stories,” “Irish Short Stories,” and “American Hardboiled Detective Fiction and Film Noir.” The poet, Amanda Gorman, inspired interest in poetry with her poem, “The Hill We Climb,” during the Inauguration. In response to this interest, we are offering two courses —“Appreciating Poetry” and “Let’s Play With Words—Poetry Writing.”

Summer is also the time for blooms in your garden. Our horticulture instructors will teach you how to grow organic vegetables, annuals, perennials, decorative trees, and shrubs. You can enhance your cooking skills with our fabulous professional chef, who is teaching a class in international cuisine.

The desire to promote good health and resiliency prompted us to offer courses in memory training in partnership with Holy Cross, classes in meditation, and a wide range of fun classes in physical wellness—t’ai chi, yoga, and a new class—a combination of fitness with dance called—LaBlast® Ballroom Dance Fitness.

If you are interested in teaching or have course suggestions, please email me:
Natasha.Sacks@montgomerycollege.edu.

Grow, learn, and thrive with us!

Virtual Face-to-Face in Real-Time!

All LLI Summer Classes are being taught online with Zoom

All LLI Summer Classes are being taught online (structured remote/synchronous or by distance learning) using live Zoom sessions. Zoom allows students to hear and see the instructor as they present their class using videos, powerpoints, and lectures. Zoom also offers students the opportunity to interact with the instructor and other students—asking questions and joining in discussions. All of this is during real-time, helping you stay connected.

It’s Easy to Zoom! Three days before your class, your instructor will send you a link to your class. You will need to have a working microphone built into your device or headphones with a microphone. If you do not, you can use the free phone conference feature. You will need to visit: https://zoom.us/download and download the Zoom application onto your computer. It only takes a few minutes. We recommend that you do this in advance to make sure all your computer components are working.

Note: We plan to run classes online until Montgomery College makes the decision to return to face-to-face classes. If this happens, those unable to attend in person will still be able to take the class online.
