

NONPROFIT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Workforce Development and Continuing Education

Facilitator Team

Our team of facilitators have extensive experience working with nonprofits - bringing practicality and real world experiences into the classroom.

Debra Liverpool, CFRE

Debra is a Certified Fundraising Executive with a certificate in nonprofit executive leadership from the Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy. For over 25 years, Debra has helped small to large nonprofits process their philanthropic strategies – serving as Director of Capital Campaigns, Senior Development Officer, Development Director, Director of Philanthropy, Development Officer, Major Gift Officer, and Legislative Liaison for the nonprofit to Montgomery County, Maryland State, and US Federal Government Legislators. Currently, Debra is the Executive Director of the Committee for Montgomery. She is a native Washingtonian and a graduate of George Washington University.

Debra teaches Nonprofit Fundraising & Development and Preparing Strong Grant Applications.

Kristopher Madore

Kristopher is a solo attorney and consultant under Madore Law, LLC. His practice offers full service and limited scope representation, fractional general counsel services, and consulting to tax exempt organizations, social enterprises, and small businesses with cause missions. Kristopher is a passionate advocate for his clients at all stages of the business life cycle, from start up to growth to wind up, helping clients navigate the myriad issues that they face. Kristopher is barred in Maryland and DC, has a MBA and MSM, and is a Certified Nonprofit Consultant and Standards for Excellence® Licensed Consultant.

Kristopher teaches Crayons and Kittens: Nonprofit Financial Basics.

Diane Meyers

Diane Meyers is an award-winning nonprofit communications, public relations and marketing leader. She has served in senior executive communication roles in the nonprofit health care industry and in other nonprofit sector roles. She led communication and marketing efforts for Holy Cross Hospital in Silver Spring, Maryland and served as the chief internal communications officer for MedStar Washington Hospital Center. She also served as the consultant head of communication with the Department of Energy's Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer. More recently, Diane served as a faculty member in Towson University's Department of Mass Communication, teaching graduate and undergraduate students nonprofit public relations, corporate communication management and communication campaigns, among other courses.

Diane teaches Nonprofit Marketing & Communications.

Justin Pollock

Justin is founder of Orgforward, a consultancy that partners with individuals and agencies to develop leadership and strategies that create communities where equity, dignity, engagement, and a healthy environment exist for everyone. His focus is supporting leadership with what is needed to effectively design and operate organizations that actively and consciously make the world a better place. Justin is an active educator, coach, writer, and strategist with more than 25 years of experience in the community benefit field. Core to the values of Justin's work is considering every engagement an opportunity to partner with others to learn, engage, and feel confident about how we can create benefit for the people and environment around us.

Justin facilitates the Nonprofit Leadership Boot Camp.

 bit.ly/mc-npt-group

 @MC_nonprofit

