Early Childhood Education Summer 2020 Course Schedule

CDA for Credit at Montgomery College

Montgomery College awards coursework to students with a Child Development Associate (CDA) National Credentialing, administered through the Council for Professional Recognition.

For any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Professor Sonia Pruneda Hernandez, Early Childhood Education Program Coordinator at Sonia.pruneda-hernandez@montgomerycollege.edu

Please note, WDCE provides training for students that are very close to completing their CDA! This may be a more cost-effective way of receiving credit for EDUC 115 and 119 especially for Child Care Providers or Paras from MCPS. For questions, please contact Nelida Andres, Interim Program Director at nelida.andres@montgomerycollege.edu.

JOIN US!

Montgomery College Advancing Child Care Teachers Toward Completion ACCTTC (Early Childhood Education Club)

The purpose of the club is to help students reach their goals to be Early Childhood Educators by networking with one another, serving the early childhood community, and building hands on experiences with young children.
